Myers Due Back On Stand

Hearing In Pangle Case Will Be Resumed Tonight

By JERRY NACHMAN

A hearing will continue tonight for John Pangle, suspended Wellsville High School band director, after 7½ hours of testimony failed to complete the questioning of even one witness Saturday night. The hearing is now being held under protest as the result of action by Ben Berman, Pangle's attorney.

Supt. Lowell B. Myers will resume the witness stand at 7:30 in the Daw Junior High School audio-visual room to undergo redirect examination by Atty. William Telzrow, who handled most of the questioning Saturday night for City Solicitor Delmar T. O'Hara, attorney for the plaintiff — the school administration.

THE HEARING began at 6 p.m. Saturday when Berman, of East Liverpool, requested Board President William Ferrall disqualify himself from sitting on the board panel on the grounds that he was "personally involved and interested in removing John Pangle from his post in the Wellsville school system."

Berman contends that because Steven Ferrall, the president's son, was involved in one of the incidents listed on a specification sheet issued by O'Hara last week, Ferrall could not objectively sit in judgment on Pangle.

Ferrall refused to relinquish his seat, declaring the board had discussed the matter and agreed that no single incident would govern the decision either for or against Pangle.

Dr. Janis Lauva, a board member, told Berman the board would issue the verdict, 'not Ferrall alone."

Berman then entered his protest "without a waiver of the rights of John Pangle" because the panel would be "prejudiced."

MYERS' testimony Saturday began with questioning by Telzrow as to whether Pangle had received sufficient orientation as to the rules and regulations of the school system.

For the next several hours most of the questions asked by Telzrow and Myers' subsequent answers were objected to by Berman on the grounds the information did not fall under the original charges listed at the Nov. 14 meeting to suspend Pangle.

Hookstown Man Killed Walking Along Road

T. J. Scott Dies At Site Of Accident

Beaver County Toll For Year Hits 53 In Latest Fatality

A 46-year-old Hookstown man was killed when he was struck by a station wagon of a Beaver Falls motorist this morning at 6:15 just south of Hookstown.

Thomas Johnson Scott of Pine St. was pronounced dead at the scene, about a third of a mile south of Hookstown on Route 168.

Pennsylvania state police at Chippewa said the vehicle was driven by Sam Capparelli, 39, of Beaver Falls, who was headed south when his 1965 station wagon hit Scott.

Scott resided with his sister, Mrs. Orrie Gillespie. He had been away from home since Saturday and apparently was walking from Laughlin's Corners at Route 30 and 168 when the mishap occurred.

The death pushed to 53 the total highway deaths in Beaver County for 1965 and pedestrian deaths to 16 — both new record highs for the county.

Scott was born in Wellsburg, W. Va., in March 1920. He was single.

Two Ohioans Killed Near Burgettstown

Two Warren, Ohio, residents were killed in a two-car collision on Pennsylvania Route 18, three miles north of Burgettstown, Saturday about 3 p. m.

They were passengers in a northbound auto driven by Elbert Seawood Jr., 28, also of Warren.

One of the cars apparently crossed over the centerline when a tire blew out.

The other auto was driven by Andrews B. Neilton of Beaver, who received internal injuries and facial and leg lacerations. He is listed in "satisfactory" condition at the hospital.

Roger Neilton, 23, also of Beaver, a passenger in the southbound auto, is also in "satisfactory" condition at the hospital with head and internal injuries.

Seawood received leg lacerations. His other passengers, also of Warren, were: Rose Davenport, 19, leg lacerations and internal injuries; William Daniels, 24, internal injuries, and Clint Fredrick, 39, internal injuries and facial lacerations.

Car, Tractor-Trailer Involved

2 Hurt In Taylor's Bend Accident

Two East Liverpool residents were injured shortly after 9 p. m. Sunday when the above car in which they were riding sideswiped a tractor-trailer at Taylor's Bend on Route 30 near Chester.

Harry T. Johnson, 38, of 259 Drain St., the driver, was listed this morning in "guarded" condition at City Hospital with a fractured jaw and multiple lacerations.

His wife, Bernice, is at the hospital in "fair" condition with lacerations of the forehead and right hand and contusions of the right elbow and hip.

Hancock County sheriff's deputies said Johnson's eastbound 1959 station wagon crossed the centerline and struck the oncoming truck, driven by Earl Berridge, 36, of Wauseon, Ohio, and owned by Reed Lines Inc. of Woodburn, Ind.

Press Johnson On Decisions In 1968

Democrat Governors Ask Part In Presidential Race

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic governors want President Johnson to let them help make the decisions on how to run the 1968 presidential campaign.

This was the nearly unanimous verdict of about a score of state executives who heaped their political woes on the absent President's shoulders at the National Governors' Conference in White Sulphur Springs, W.Va., last week.

Privately, the governors complained to each other that politically Johnson is a one-man band who doesn't even invite them to sing in the background chorus.

There is likely to be some pointed conversation about reorganization of the Democratic National Committee at a projected post-Christmas meeting between the President and a delegation headed by Gov. Harold E. Hughes of Iowa.

Before the conference adjourned Saturday, some Democratic governors had softened their original blasts that the President was traveling the "Great Society" road too fast in a period when Vietnam war spending is skyrocketing. But nearly all said that if Johnson hopes to win in 1968 he is going to have to reorganize the party machinery.

The President's friend, Gov. John B. Connally of Texas, said in an interview the 25 Democratic governors will have to form the base of this campaign organization.

Gov. Otto Kerner of Illinois suggested there may be a "civil war" if National Chairman John M. Bailey isn't replaced.

Bailey has denied he is on the way out and said he expects to preside over a February meeting of the Committee. But some of the governors think Johnson may have other plans after he talks with the governors.

Gov. Richard J. Hughes of New Jersey, who said the governors were blaming the President for doing what he was elected to do, cautioned his colleagues not to "push the panic button" because the party suffered setbacks in the November election.

He predicted, as did Kerner, that Johnson will be re-elected.

If Johnson seeks a second term, most Democratic governors expect Michigan Gov. George Romney to be his opponent. They generally look upon Romney as a much more dangerous foe than former Vice President Richard M. Nixon or any other potential GOP nominee.

U.S. Asks U Thant To Take Steps For Cease-Fire In Viet Fighting

BULLETIN

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The United States today asked U.N. Secretary-General U Thant to take whatever steps were necessary to arrange a cease-fire in Vietnam.

The request was handed to the secretary-general by U.S. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg during a 20-minute private meeting.

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — U.S. warplanes returned to the Hanoi area with clearing weather over the Red River Valley today and attacked the Ha Gia fuel storage area 14.5 miles north of the North Vietnamese capital, a U.S. spokesman reported.

It was the first air strike around Hanoi since heavy strikes in the area last Tuesday and Wednesday. The U.S. Command said foul weather had forced U.S. air raiders to concentrate on North Vietnam's southern panhandle.

In the South, the United States continued beefing up its troop strength with the arrival of a guerrilla-trained brigade of the 9th Infantry Division — the old outfit of Gen. William C. Westmoreland, U.S. commander in South Vietnam. He was on hand to greet them.

In the new raids in the Hanoi area, a U.S. spokesman in Saigon said, initial pilot reports indicated all the ordnance from the U.S. planes hit in the target area.

The pilots reported sighting Communist MIG jets in the area of the fuel dump, but preliminary reports disclosed no exchange of fire.

The raids last week set off a series of Communist charges that homes were bombed in Hanoi, killing women and children.

The United States denied that any bombs fell on the Communist capital. U.S. officials speculated that the Communist ground fire — missles and antiaircraft shells — may have fallen on the city. Also there was a possibility U.S. bombs and rockets fell accidentally on nonmilitary targets, as frequently happens in aerial warfare.

The raids last week were five and six miles from the center of Hanoi, spokesmen in Saigon said. The targets were railroad and truck depots, though Communist broadcasts insist the Communist Chinese Embassy and the Romanian Embassy in Hanoi were damaged.

The spokesman said seven flights of U.S. Air Force planes participated today in the Ha Gia fuel storage raid. A flight normally consists of three to five aircraft.

U.S. headquarters in Saigon reported American plane losses over North Vietnam had reached 450. This included four planes not previously announced. A U.S. spokesman said these had gone down out of sight of the enemy, indicating they had crashed in the Gulf of Tonkin or in Laos.

'The Death Of A President'

Efforts Pushed To Settle Book Issue Out Of Court

NEW YORK (AP) — Spokesmen for two publishers involved in the dispute with the Kennedy family over publication of the book, "The Death of a President," disclosed today that efforts are being made to settle the matter out of court.

The disclosure followed a statement by William Manchester, author of the book, denying that he had broken faith with Mrs. John F. Kennedy or that he had taken advantage of her confidence in him. The book is about the assassination of President Kennedy.

"There are continuing efforts to patch things up," said a spokesman for Harper & Row, Publishers Inc., which plans to bring out the 300,000-word hardcover book in April.

"Every effort will be made to work things out," the spokesman said. "There are always the author's rights and her rights."

Asked if the aim might be to reach some understanding on the separation of deeply personal matter, which Mrs. Kennedy seeks to keep out of the book, from what is considered history, the spokesman replied: "I think that is pretty accurate."

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson wrestles with the big space and agriculture budgets today as he swings into a full schedule of official conferences at his Texas ranch.

For the current year, Johnson proposed budgets of nearly $7 billion for agriculture and $5.1 billion for NASA.

The budget the President now is working on, for presentation to Congress next month, covers the 12 months starting July 1.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara will be at the ranch Tuesday, presumably to help nail down some of the final details of the new defense budget, expected to total nearly $70 billion.

The total budget will likely run around $135 billion.

18 Are Killed, 10 Injured In Plane Crash

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP) — As "people started to scream and call for their children," a Colombian airliner crashed short of the runway while landing at Bogota in heavy fog Sunday, killing 13 persons and injuring 10.

Aerocondor Air Lines said the crash took the lives of nine Americans from Florida, five Colombians living in the United States and four other Colombians.

The airline said in Miami, Fla., where the flight began, that the Super-Constellation carried 54 passengers and 6 crew.

One survivor, Kay Tuttle, 33, of Crestline, Ohio, said passengers were told as they neared Eldorado Airport that the plane would land despite thickening fog.

15 More Killed In Ohio Traffic

By The Associated Press

At least 15 persons were killed in Ohio traffic accidents over the weekend, but by comparison with recent months, this represented continuation of a pre - holiday lull in fatal wrecks.

It was the third straight weekend in which fewer than 20 deaths were recorded, a great reduction from the tolls repeatedly amassed through September, October and November.

But now come the holidays.

Ohio motorists who may think travel is getting safer have only to look back a year. In the 1965 Christmas weekend of 78 hours a ghastly toll of 50 was registered in the state; the 1965-66 New Year holiday period, also 78 hours, brought 46 deaths.

The coming Christmas period will be tallied on a 78 hour basis again, 6 p.m. next Friday to midnight Monday.

The 54-hour tally of the past weekend followed on the heels of a Friday afternoon in which nine persons perished in three accidents.

On the weekend proper, two double fatality crashes were reported—one in Medina County, one in Trumbull County.

Saturday

Bernard A. Thomas about 35, Medina, and Raymond Weahry, 24, Sterling, Wayne County, when their car crashed off Ohio 3 near Seville in Medina County.

Harry B. Lewis, 74, Rt. 2, Racine, Meigs County, struck by a car as he walked along a highway near Kanauga, Gallia County.

Robert J. Beucler, 39, Rt. 2, Stryker, whose car was struck by a train near his home in Williams County.

Jerry D. Titus, 16, Marysville, whose car failed to make a curve near Plain City in Madison County.

Sunday

Mark Rone, 23, Lima, in a single-car accident on Ohio 117 west of Lima.

Dominic Simeone, 46, Girard, driving his car, and Alice Rule, 47, Warren, passenger in another, in a three-car pileup on a city street in Girard.

Mrs. Justyne Lander, 72, Cleveland, hit by a car while crossing a street near her home.

Hussein Claims Soviet Seeking Mideast Control

WASHINGTON (AP) —King Hussein of Jordan said today the Soviet Union has adopted a new policy aimed at gaining control of the Middle East.

"I think the Soviets are prepared to go very far in this matter almost to the point of a confrontation with the free world," he said.

In a copyright interview in U.S. News & World Report, the king said the Soviet Union wants control of the area's natural resources — particularly petroleum — and of communications routes such as the Suez Canal.

"In addition," he said, "if the Soviets were able to overrun the Arab world they would then have a direct link with Africa, which is also a very interesting target for them."

Do Your Bit For Clear Air

Formation of an Ohio - West Virginia anti - pollution organization and participation by a Midland delegation in a national pure air conference at Washington has focused attention anew on a problem too long with us.

The matter is primarily the concern of industry — large and small — and already has involved the spending of considerable money, and will involve even more in the corrective future.

There are things the average citizen can do, however, to help clean up the air. The contribution may seem meager compared with the major program now in effect or in the planning stage. But this definitely is a case where every little bit helps.

To residents of the tri - state area and the Upper Ohio Valley in general we recommend:

You can have your automatic exhaust and other operating systems checked for performance regularly.

You do the same with your son's motor bike, with your furnace, your power boat, power mower, snow thrower, and with anything else you own that burns fuel for heat or power.

You cooperate with public health officials not only by knowing local rules and regulations and by observing them faithfully — but by reporting violations when you see them or smell them. This is in the interest of yourself and your family.

It is not enough that you be informed about air pollution. It is essential that you participate.

Another Test

The pressure is on again as area drivers move into another holiday period.

The traffic accident picture has not been pleasant in Columbiana, Hancock and Beaver counties. Fatalities and injuries have been frequent.

With Christmas and New Year's at hand, the need for careful driving never has been more important. Everybody will be coming and going. Everybody will be in a hurry and the scurrying will increase the danger of mishaps.

Don't take to the highways unless absolutely necessary. If you do find it necessary, don't take chances — and do your best to be on guard against those who may.

Benefit Hike In The Wind

Increased benefits under the Social Security program will be among the first proposals considered by the 90th Congress after it convenes next month.

Some type of a stepped-up benefit program is virtually assured.

President Johnson has indicated on several occasions that he plans to seek expanded benefits, particularly for retired workers.

Recently, Republican leaders served notice the newly-strengthened GOP minority will launch its own drive for improvements that in some respects go beyond the Johnson proposals.

Among goals Republicans will press for is a cost-of-living escalator clause to increase benefit payments automatically whenever the cost of living rises significantly.

TYING THE BENEFIT levels to the cost of living almost certainly will be opposed by the administration because of the inflationary impact.

Instead President Johnson will push for a one-shot increase of at least 10 per cent for retired persons and there are indications that he might go for a higher rate—in the range of 15 per cent.

The President also has proposed that every worker employed under Social Security for 25 years be guaranteed a minimum of $100 a month.

Finally, the administration wants to boost the amount of wages a retired person may earn without sacrificing part or all of his benefits.

Any forthcoming benefit increase will be welcomed by retirees who have a tough time meeting living costs on present monthly check levels.

Social Security is important, not only important to the well-being of its recipients, but to the economy as a whole.

Payments totaled $19.8 billion in the year ended last June 30. And since most of the recipients use every dime of their checks for necessities, the money was tossed right back into the economic hopper.

The biggest complaints about the program include the way it has been used by politicians as a vote getter and that it is a regressive tax.

If it were not for the Social Security program, a lot more people would be on welfare; and this is something we don't need.

Also, Congress should consider broadening the income base from the present $6,600 to remove the regressive tax stigma.

Legislation already on the books provides for higher Social Security payroll taxes in six stages over the next 20 years. The rate will go to 4.4 per cent on Jan. 1, 1967, and gradually rise to 5.65 per cent by 1987.

The only way to keep a politician from supporting benefit increases when beneficial to his own ends, is to come up with a distribution plan with automatic increases.

A Different LBJ

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

What kind of President Johnson will there be in the White House in these final two years of his first full term?

He seems different from the Johnson of most of the first two years.

For months now this extremely vigorous and aggressive man, an arm-twister and master politician, has been operating within a kind of half-light. He has been seen, he has been heard, but only occasionally.

This in itself is extraordinary. It is a switch from his earlier White House days when he would take to the airwaves two or three times within a week at the drop of a bomb in the Dominican Republic.

Within the past few months a change seemed to set in.

Instead of devoting every possible minute to campaigning for Democrats who needed all the help they could get in the November elections, he went off to Manila and toured East Asia for a couple of weeks.

LAST WEEK Gov. Harold E. Hughes of Iowa told newsmen that Democratic state executives attending the National Governors Conference at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., were almost unanimous in blaming Johnson's unpopularity and his administration's programs for the party's poor showing last November.

This isn't the only rebuff for Johnson. He has seen the public opinion polls show his popularity going down. Yet he seems to be doing no more to help himself, in a public relations way, than he did to help his party.

This doesn't add up. He is being criticized—although why this has started at this time is not at all clear — for the "credibility gap" in what is said by himself and his administration.

Johnson, an extremely sensitive man who in the past has hungered for public approval, smarts under this kind of criticism. But he isn't taking any action, at least publicly, to meet this, either.

Instead, he almost seems withdrawn. This could be explained, of course, on several grounds: after the elections he had some minor surgery, then he went to Texas to recuperate, then he had to get busy there on his whole program for 1967. He will hand Congress most of it when it returns in January.

BUT THE explanation, sound as it is, seems a little unreal when Johnson's boundless energy rush for the microphone, dash to the television screen in other days are remembered. He always fought back. He doesn't seem to be fighting back now.

The question is: Will he fight back in 1967? He will have to if he intends to run again in 1968.

But he has a terrible monkey on his back, the war in Vietnam, which by the very nature of its unsolved, dragged - out condition is bound to cost him some popularity and confidence, no matter what else good he does.

When all the handicaps of his problems are added together, they still don't explain why this dynamic man let his Democrats fend for themselves at election time, when he is the leader, why he has become almost silent, or why he is publicly doing so little to help himself.

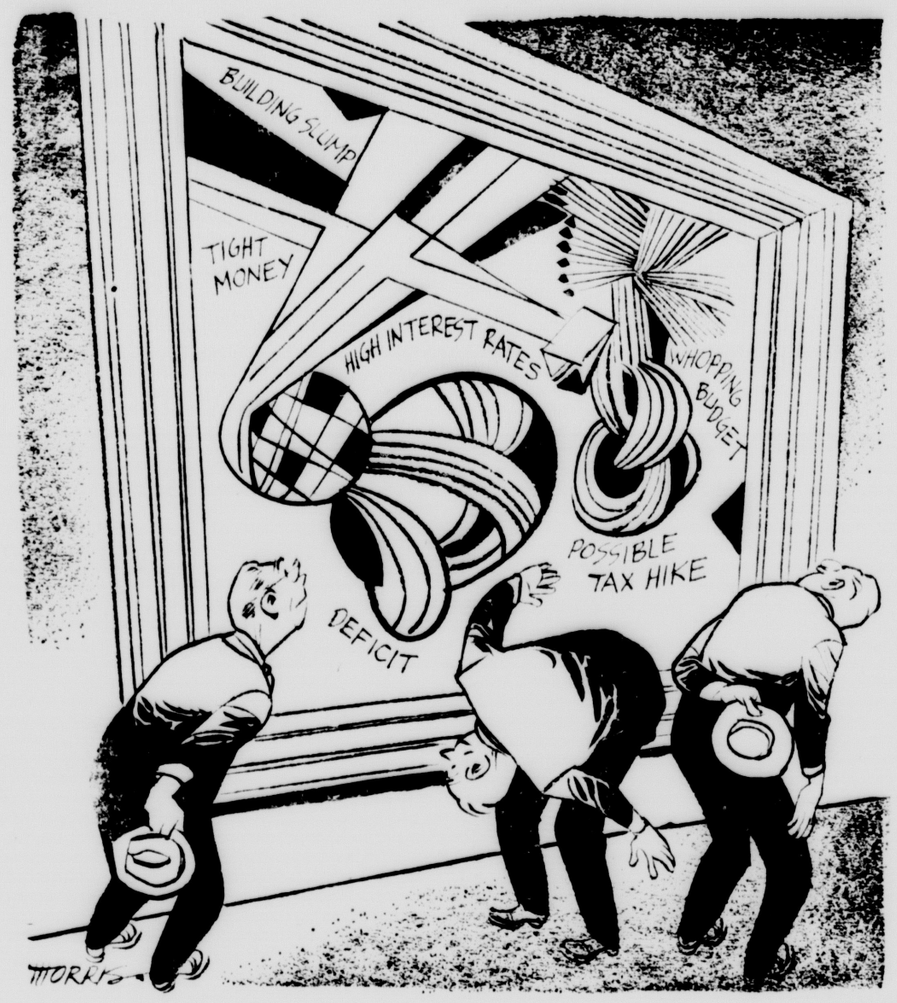
Unpop Art!



Father Of The Bug

By Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON

Just when things were getting dull in Washington, Robert Kennedy, the former attorney general, and J. Edgar Hoover, the head of the FBI, plunged headlong into a bitter brouhaha over who gave permission to bug certain elements of our society while violating their constitutional rights.

Art Buchwald

It is not general knowledge, but the bugging of telephones has been going on in the United States for almost 100 years.

The first known case of the government bugging someone took place on March 10, 1876, in the laboratories of Alexander Graham Bell in Boston, Mass. Bell had been working for some time on a new speaking device which he called the telephone. In the next room was his assistant, Tom Watson. One day Bell said into his mouthpiece, "Watson, come here, I want you."

Watson rushed into the next room, threw his arms around Bell and the telephone was born.

BUT UNBEKNOWNST to both Watson and Bell, a third person was listening in on their conversation. It was a young government investiagtor named J. E. Hoover, who was out to make a name for himself in the justice Department.

J. E. took the next train for Washington. Breathlessly, he rushed in to see President Grant's attorney general, who happened to be a man named Edwards Pierrepont. In the presence of department officials he played the primitive, crackling tape for them.

Atty. Gen. Pierrepont couldn't believe his ears. "What hath God wrought?" he said.

J. E. said, "You have heard a tape of the first conversation ever bugged on a telephone."

"What the hell's a telephone?" the attorney general wanted to know.

"It's a new invention by some Scotsman named Alexander Graham Bell. He wasn't a citizen, so I was very curious as to what he was up to. I think 'Watson, come in here, I want you,' is some sort of code, but I haven't had time to break it down yet."

"But what good is bugging a telephone?" the attorney general demanded.

"I'd rather put it another way, sir. What good is a telephone if it isn't bugged? Don't you see what this invention means? If there are going to be telephones we can listen in on them and we can catch spies and crooks and Communists and bookies and juvenile delinquents and even lawyers."

"I don't know, J. E. The whole thing smells unconstitutional to me," the attorney general said.

"BUT HOW ELSE are we going to get the rats if we don't bug them on the telephone?" J. E. demanded.

"I'm the attorney general of the United States, J. E., and I can't condone wire tapping of any kind unless it's in the national interest. On the other hand, if I didn't know about it, then I wouldn't be condoning it. Would I?"

"Exactly my thoughts, sir. Just sign this letter saying you don't know anything about me tapping telephones and it will be all the authority I need."

Little did Edwards Pierrepont know when he signed the letter that every other attorney general after him would sign a similar letter until this year when the Supreme Court Court wanted to know what was going on.

Alexander Graham Bell may have invented the telephone, but it was young J. E. Hoover who really made the invention pay off for law-abiding Americans everywhere.

LBJ: How Tall In 1967?

By Bruce Biossat

President Johnson's friends defend him today as always as just about the most unknowledgeable man on government matters of any who ever held the presidency.

What is going to be sorely tested in 1967 and beyond, however, is not what he already knows but what he can learn.

To be exact, the measure will be put upon his capacity for growth. In the context of the presidency, this means more than simply soaking up huge volumes of new facts. It means showing a capacity to change as a man.

It's not any kind of news that Lyndon Johnson in the White House is basically a one-man band. People who worked closely with him in his 1960 campaign for the vice presidency privately foretold how he would be as a chief executive. He could not keep his hands off any campaign problem, no matter how trivial.

WHAT HAS HAPPENED since is reasonably well-established history. His grasping for all details, his secretiveness, his suspiciousness are legendary. Whatever his reliance upon certain key men, however much "advice" he seems to seek, it appears that in the end he trusts only himself to do things and to know what and when action will come.

This habit is portrayed constantly by his aides as the necessary caution of a conscientious president who wants to wrap up everything tightly before moving—since a move once made at so high a level can never quite be recalled or reversed.

This is a natural characteristic of politicians the world over. Those who lack it generally do not last long in the trade.

The notion is developing in Washington, nevertheless, that this urge to self-protection—as acted upon by Johnson—has within it the seeds of political self-destruction.

IN SOME WAYS the President has tried to run the Vietnam war out of his 10-gallon hat, somewhat as if he were a Texas rancher trying to rid his cattle preserve of pesky sheepherders from Hanoi.

Since they fall on the citizenry with very uneven impact, limited wars are more unfair and more unpopular than general wars. There is no evidence they are made more palatable by having some of their costs and other burdens hidden from general view. They are not hidden from the people they hurt.

The country soon will know how the war cost and inflation factors are to be faced—whether with or without new taxes. But Johnson never has approached the problem with the open simplicity Harry Truman gave it. In successive years of the Korean war, he slapped on new levies of first $5 billion and then $11 billion.

Nor has the President chosen to tell people frankly what a nearly hopeless struggle it is for him to try to meet rising goals of Great Society programs in education, health care, etc., while fighting a bitter war.

HE HAS GIVEN AWAY potential sympathy from Americans by pretending they could pay for costly combat, finance the most ambitious social programs in history and yet feel no great strain. As the poverty program and others falter from fund shortages, he is reaping the inevitable harvest of criticism—with more in store.

To top it all, he has tried to run the Democratic party from the White House with only one man, the able Postmaster General Lawrence O'Brien, who grasps national party politics.

The President truly has neglected the political mechanism he needs to assure him a new chance after 1968 to make the big power decision he loves to hug to his chest. Ironically, therefore, this political Mr. Solo could wind up gravely spiting himself if he does not change enough to hand to others vital pieces of the action.

Odd Facts

The first mention in history of the use of lenses as a means of aiding eyesight is that of Roger Bacon the famous English philosopher and scientist who lived in the 13th century.

The odds each year are about one in four that each of us will suffer some sort of injury serious enough to require medical attention.

A Problem

By David Lawrence

FBI Should Be Independent

The controversy between the Federal Bureau of Investigation and a former attorney general as to when wiretapping and eavesdropping are justified or illegal could have a salutary result. Sooner or later the American people will have to face up to the fact that the Department of Justice is a political body, subject to the whims of a President or an attorney general and this raises the question of whether law enforcement shouldn't be completely separated in the future from the executive branch of the government.

To put in the hands of a Cabinet officer the power to decide how laws shall be enforced means that political pressures can interfere with prosecutions or can lead to the use of the investigative mechanism as a weapon of political reprisal.

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL of the United States today is not responsible directly to the people. Yet in most cities and counties the prosecuting attorney must go before the electorate periodically so that judgment can regularly be passed on his particular performance in office.

The Department of Justice, as a law-enforcement agency, logically has a close relationship to the judicial branch of government, and is being constantly supervised by orders or opinions rendered by the courts.

It's apparent from the current dispute over "bugging" that there is no clear definition of where public rights begin or end and when privacy must be respected

Congress has the power under the Constitution to write laws that not only prescribe the jurisdiction of the federal courts but also authorize steps to be taken from time to time to enforce the laws of the land.

Law enforcement, moreover, is a task so closely related to interpretations of law that it would be more natural to have the head of the FBI serve a 15-year term and report directly to Congress—as is the case with the comptroller general—than to make him responsive, as at present, to the edicts of the man in the White House or his attorney general.

WITHIN THE LAST 80 YEARS, Congress has established what are known as "independent agencies"—the first being the Interstate Commerce Commission in 1887. Many similar bodies have been created since. Their rulings are subject to court review and they have become quasi - judicial commissions of the government. Their members are appointed by the President and confirmed by the Senate. They are not supposed to be under the duress or pressure of the President and have the right to act independently of the executive branch of the government. An analogous setup for the Federal Bureau of Investigation would at least permit its detachment from politics and would assure impartiality in handling the rules of law enforcement and investigative procedures.

IT'S TRUE that through all the years during which the Federal Bureau of Investigation has operated there have been relatively few instances of political interference by any administration. But the President or his representative in the Department of Justice does have the power to tell the FBI what to do.

This has just been emphasized by the disclosure of various memoranda passing between the FBI and Robert F. Kennedy when he was holding the office of attorney general and his brother was President of the United States.

It has taken a good deal of courage for J. Edgar Hoover, who has been director of the FBI since 1924, to stand up to all the attorney generals who have from time to time sought to give him instructions as to what his agency could or could not do in law enforcement. Fortunately, most of these differences have been resolved without publicity and in a constructive way but the weakness in the system still prevails, and will not be cured until the FBI is set up as an independent agency similar to the various federal commissions already established by Congress.

The only way to keep a politician from supporting benefit increases when beneficial to his own ends, is to come up with a distribution plan with automatic increases.

IN SOME WAYS the President has tried to run the Vietnam war out of his 10-gallon hat, somewhat as if he were a Texas rancher trying to rid his cattle preserve of pesky sheepherders from Hanoi.

Since they fall on the citizenry with very uneven impact, limited wars are more unfair and more unpopular than general wars. There is no evidence they are made more palatable by having some of their costs and other burdens hidden from general view. They are not hidden from the people they hurt.

The country soon will know how the war cost and inflation factors are to be faced—whether with or without new taxes. But Johnson never has approached the problem with the open simplicity Harry Truman gave it. In successive years of the Korean war, he slapped on new levies of first $5 billion and then $11 billion.

Nor has the President chosen to tell people frankly what a nearly hopeless struggle it is for him to try to meet rising goals of Great Society programs in education, health care, etc., while fighting a bitter war.

HE HAS GIVEN AWAY potential sympathy from Americans by pretending they could pay for costly combat, finance the most ambitious social programs in history and yet feel no great strain. As the poverty program and others falter from fund shortages, he is reaping the inevitable harvest of criticism—with more in store.

To top it all, he has tried to run the Democratic party from the White House with only one man, the able Postmaster General Lawrence O'Brien, who grasps national party politics.

The President truly has neglected the political mechanism he needs to assure him a new chance after 1968 to make the big power decision he loves to hug to his chest. Ironically, therefore, this political Mr. Solo could wind up gravely spiting himself if he does not change enough to hand to others vital pieces of the action.

Odd Facts

The first mention in history of the use of lenses as a means of aiding eyesight is that of Roger Bacon, the famous English philosopher and scientist who lived in the 13th century.

The odds each year are about one in four that each of us will suffer some sort of injury serious enough to require medical attention.

A Problem

FBI Should Be Independent

The controversy between the Federal Bureau of Investigation and a former attorney general as to when wiretapping and eavesdropping are justified or illegal could have a salutary result. Sooner or later the American people will have to face up to the fact that the Department of Justice is a political body, subject to the whims of a President or an attorney general and this raises the question of whether law enforcement shouldn't be completely separated in the future from the executive branch of the government.

To put in the hands of a Cabinet officer the power to decide how laws shall be enforced means that political pressures can interfere with prosecutions or can lead to the use of the investigative mechanism as a weapon of political reprisal.

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL of the United States today is not responsible directly to the people. Yet in most cities and counties the prosecuting attorney must go before the electorate periodically so that judgment can regularly be passed on his particular performance in office.

The Department of Justice, as a law-enforcement agency, logically has a close relationship to the judicial branch of government, and is being constantly supervised by orders or opinions rendered by the courts.

It's apparent from the current dispute over "bugging" that there is no clear definition of where public rights begin or end and when privacy must be respected.

Congress has the power under the Constitution to write laws that not only prescribe the jurisdiction of the federal courts but also authorize steps to be taken from time to time to enforce the laws of the land.

Law enforcement, moreover, is a task so closely related to interpretations of law that it would be more natural to have the head of the FBI serve a 15-year term and report directly to Congress—as is the case with the comptroller general—than to make him responsive, as at present, to the edicts of the man in the White House or his attorney general.

WITHIN THE LAST 80 YEARS, Congress has established what are known as "independent agencies"—the first being the Interstate Commerce Commission in 1887. Many similar bodies have been created since. Their rulings are subject to court review and they have become quasi - judicial commissions of the government. Their members are appointed by the President and confirmed by the Senate. They are not supposed to be under the duress or pressure of the President and have the right to act independently of the executive branch of the government. An analogous setup for the Federal Bureau of Investigation would at least permit its detachment from politics and would assure impartiality in handling the rules of law enforcement and investigative procedures.

IT'S TRUE that through all the years during which the Federal Bureau of Investigation has operated there have been relatively few instances of political interference by any administration. But the President or his representative in the Department of Justice does have the power to tell the FBI what to do.

This has just been emphasized by the disclosure of various memoranda passing between the FBI and Robert F. Kennedy when he was holding the office of attorney general and his brother was President of the United States.

It has taken a good deal of courage for J. Edgar Hoover, who has been director of the FBI since 1924, to stand up to all the attorney generals who have from time to time sought to give him instructions as to what his agency could or could not do in law enforcement. Fortunately, most of these differences have been resolved without publicity and in a constructive way but the weakness in the system still prevails, and will not be cured until the FBI is set up as an independent agency similar to the various federal commissions already established by Congress.

Young Wife Launches Trip To Visit Wounded Husband

MASON, Ohio (AP)—A young Warren County housewife sets out today on her first trip to Hawaii to visit her husband who is recuperating from battle wounds he suffered in South Viet Nam.

"I'm really excited about it," Mrs. Donald C. Williams, 19, said Sunday night while packing for the week-long journey at the expense of the Honolulu Rotary Club.

"They called me Thursday night and told me Don had won some sort of contest among patients at the hospital. I'm going to see him some time Tuesday.

"The last time I saw him was in April, just before he went to Vietnam."

SP-4 Williams, 23, was wounded in April when a land mine exploded during a patrol and sprayed his face with shrapnel fragments. He has undergone extensive plastic surgery at the hospital in the past months and does not know his wife is coming to see him.

Mrs. Williams said she was told she could stay in Honolulu for four or five days. She said she did not know whether she could take her husband out of the hospital to see the sights.

The couple were married Sept. 21, 1965, while Williams was on leave from the Army.

Public Hearing Slated On Auto Insurance Rates

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Citing "public interest" over proven legal basis, Ohio Insurance Supt. William Morris said a public hearing will be held after the holidays on auto insurance liability rate revisions.

The Ohio AFL-CIO had applied for a hearing to review increases called for by firms covered by the filing of the National Bureau of Casualty Underwriters.

Morris said analysis of the labor group's allegations was incomplete, but that its application indicated the AFL-CIO had "additional information or evidence relating to the propriety of the National Bureau finding."

The AFL-CIO's application said the insurance companies did not need an increase in rates to bring a reasonable profit. Its application was accompanied by one from AFL-CIO Comptroller Ira C. Thompson, acting as an individual.

Morris said he had decided that "the public interest will best be served" by allowing the AFL-CIO to present whatever additional evidence it might have.

Girl Doing Well In Fifth Day Of Hunger Strike

NEW YORK (AP) — An 18-year-old girl arrested in an anti-Vietnam war demonstration is "doing well" in the fifth day of a hunger strike, a jail officer said today.

Suzanne Williams has not eaten since she and 59 others were arrested Thursday in front of the armed forces induction center in lower Manhattan, a jail spokesman said. Water has been available in her cell at the Women's House of Detention.

The 60 were charged with disorderly conduct and Miss Williams was accused also of resisting arrest. She was taken into court in a wheel chair for her arraignment because she refused to walk.

East End Mishap Damages 6 Cars

Six autos were damaged in East End in a spectacular crash late Saturday night that is still under investigation.

A 1966 model car allegedly driven by Michael Lowry, 15, of 910 Railroad St. crashed into five parked cars about 11:28 on St. George St., police said.

Officers said no charges have been filed pending completion of the investigation. The boy was driving a 1966 model car owned by the Hertz Leasing Corp. of New York City and leased to Dan Bramer, 35, of 3057 S. Meridian Rd., Youngstown, officers said.

Police quoted Bramer as saying the Lowry boy "had an operator's license and wanted to drive the auto." However, police said the investigation disclosed the boy does not have an operator's permit.

The boy claimed Bramer compelled him to drive the car, police said. Lowry told police he lost control of the auto because Bramer placed his foot on top of Lowry's foot, which was on the gas pedal.

Patrolman Jack Strobel started the investigation, working four hours immediately after the crash. Officers said some parts of the story still are "confused" and the investigation is continuing.

TWO CHARGES were filed against an East End man Saturday after his auto and a city-owned truck were involved in a collision on Pennsylvania Ave. at Oakland Ave.

Theodore J. Martin, 24, of 1701 Pennsylvania Ave. was cited on charges of failure to yield the right-of-way and leaving the scene of an accident. He was charged by Patrolman Orin C. Smith after the collision involving his 1957 four - door sedan and a 1960 model pickup truck operated by Devern Wolfe, 26, of 640 Azalea Ave.

Wolfe told police he was slowing for a red traffic light when Martin pulled out of a private driveway, turning east, and hit the right rear fender of the truck. Wolfe said he pursued Martin's car to Marshall's Bottom, where the motorist halted. Martin told police his brakes failed as he pulled out of the driveway, causing him to hit the truck.

A 23-year-old district man escaped injury Sunday at 2:39 a. m. when his 1966 model sports car overturned on the Pennsylvania Ave. "Hill Rd.," police said.

Wayne L. Hickman of R. D. 3 told officers he was driving west about 35 to 40 miles an hour when the auto hit bumps in the pavement which caused it to go off the road. The car rolled over after striking the soft earth alongside the road, but wound up on its wheels, he said. There was heavy damage to the front, rear and both sides of the car and the top also was dented, police said.

Alvin H. Habenicht, 55, of 5th Ave., LaCroft, was charged with failure to stop in the assured clear distance as an aftermath of a crash Saturday at 6:08 p.m. on Lisbon St. at Sanford Ave.

Police said Habenicht's 1963 two - door hit the rear of a halted four - door sedan driven by John W. Massey, 19, of 696 Spring Grove Ave.

MASSEY SAID he had halted for a car which was waiting to make a left turn onto Sanford Ave. when his auto was hit from the rear. The collision damaged the left rear of the Massey auto and caused heavy damage to the right front of Habenicht's car, police said.

David Ray Deyarmon of 929 Florence St. told police the left front door of his 1966 model imported convertible was damaged when struck by a hit-skip car Saturday at 7:10 p. m. while parked on Florence St. 100 feet east of John St.

Deyarmon told police he heard a crash, went outside his home and saw the offending car leaving the scene. He furnished police with a partial description of the other car.

Meanwhile, William D. Kidder, of 1572 Etruria St. told police the right front fender of his car was scratched when struck by a hit - skip car sometime between 5 p. m. Saturday and 1 a. m. Sunday. The car evidently was hit while parked, he said.

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Forty fraternity brothers completed a hike for charity to Pittsburgh Sunday night, bushed from a 65-mile march.

They turned over to Children's Hospital $1,513 collected from motorists on the two-day walk, the third year they had staged the march to help the hospital.

Miss Carol Chambers, an official of the Hospital for Crippled Children, said, "They were dead. Some of them were lying on the floor falling asleep on each other. I guess their feet were in pretty bad shape."

East End Mishap Damages 6 Cars

Six autos were damaged in East End in a spectacular crash late Saturday night that is still under investigation.

A 1966 model car allegedly driven by Michael Lowry, 15, of 910 Railroad St. crashed into five parked cars about 11:28 on St. George St., police said.

Officers said no charges have been filed pending completion of the investigation. The boy was driving a 1966 model car owned by the Hertz Leasing Corp. of New York City and leased to Dan Bramer, 35, of 3057 S. Meridian Rd., Youngstown, officers said.

Police quoted Bramer as saying the Lowry boy "had an operator's license and wanted to drive the auto." However, police said the investigation disclosed the boy does not have an operator's permit.

The boy claimed Bramer compelled him to drive the car, police said. Lowry told police he lost control of the auto because Bramer placed his foot on top of Lowry's foot, which was on the gas pedal.

Patrolman Jack Strobel started the investigation, working four hours immediately after the crash. Officers said some parts of the story still are "confused" and the investigation is continuing.

TWO CHARGES were filed against an East End man Saturday after his auto and a city-owned truck were involved in a collision on Pennsylvania Ave. at Oakland Ave.

Theodore J. Martin, 24, of 1701 Pennsylvania Ave. was cited on charges of failure to yield the right-of-way and leaving the scene of an accident. He was charged by Patrolman Orin C. Smith after the collision involving his 1957 four - door sedan and a 1960 model pickup truck operated by Devern Wolfe, 26, of 640 Azalea Ave.

Wolfe told police he was slowing for a red traffic light when Martin pulled out of a private driveway, turning east, and hit the right rear fender of the truck. Wolfe said he pursued Martin's car to Marshall's Bottom, where the motorist halted. Martin told police his brakes failed as he pulled out of the driveway, causing him to hit the truck.

A 23-year-old district man escaped injury Sunday at 2:39 a. m. when his 1966 model sports car overturned on the Pennsylvania Ave. "Hill Rd.," police said.

Wayne L. Hickman of R. D. 3 told officers he was driving west about 35 to 40 miles an hour when the auto hit bumps in the pavement which caused it to go off the road. The car rolled over after striking the soft earth alongside the road, but wound up on its wheels, he said. There was heavy damage to the front, rear and both sides of the car and the top also was dented, police said.

Alvin H. Habenicht, 55, of 5th Ave., LaCroft, was charged with failure to stop in the assured clear distance as an aftermath of a crash Saturday at 6:08 p.m. on Lisbon St. at Sanford Ave.

Police said Habenicht's 1963 two - door hit the rear of a halted four - door sedan driven by John W. Massey, 19, of 696 Spring Grove Ave.

MASSEY SAID he had halted for a car which was waiting to make a left turn onto Sanford Ave. when his auto was hit from the rear. The collision damaged the left rear of the Massey auto and caused heavy damage to the right front of Habenicht's car, police said.

David Ray Deyarmon of 929 Florence St. told police the left front door of his 1966 model imported convertible was damaged when struck by a hit-skip car Saturday at 7:10 p. m. while parked on Florence St. 100 feet east of John St.

Deyarmon told police he heard a crash, went outside his home and saw the offending car leaving the scene. He furnished police with a partial description of the other car.

Meanwhile, William D. Kidder, of 1572 Etruria St. told police the right front fender of his car was scratched when struck by a hit - skip car sometime between 5 p. m. Saturday and 1 a. m. Sunday. The car evidently was hit while parked, he said.

Fraternity Brothers End Hike For Charity

They turned over to Children's Hospital $1,513 collected from motorists on the two-day walk, the third year they had staged the march to help the hospital.

Miss Carol Chambers, an official of the Hospital for Crippled Children, said, "They were dead. Some of them were lying on the floor falling asleep on each other. I guess their feet were in pretty bad shape."

The students, members of Kappa Delta Rho fraternity at Indiana University of Pennsylvania, returned to the campus by car.

Hearings In Pangle Case Will Be Resumed Tonight

met by matching objections on the part of O'Hara, who affirmed that the information being sought was justified because it had been mentioned in the specification sheet.

Berman continued to object on grounds that facts were mentioned which were not included in the list of charges drawn up by Myers last month.

As the three attorneys looked to the board for a response, Ferrall continuously had to remind them the board was made up of men who were not lawyers.

When one of a myriad of objections was raised by Berman and discussion ensued, Ferrall commented, "Just enter your objection, Mr. Berman, this case will go to court anyhow."

The band director is permitted by law to petition Common Pleas Court to rule in the event his suspension is upheld and his contract terminated by the board.

DURING direct questioning, Myers testified Pangle violated board policy in various matters. He stated the defendant was aware of the rule requiring teachers to make lesson plans and had disregarded it.

He also testified to the fact that Pangle's classes were on occasion found to be in a state of "chaos."

Telzrow questioned Myers relative to a June meeting of the board at which time Pangle was said by Myers to have "exploded" when told he could not take the marching band to a parade in Elizabeth, Pa.

Berman objected, again because the charge was not in the five-point recommendation for suspension issued last month and commented the plaintiff was not permitted to enlarge on those charges. "It's like coming into court charged with trespassing and winding up charged with first-degree murder," Berman added.

Telzrow introduced into the record advertisements for the St. Rocco church festival held last August which promised music by Wellsville High School band students.

Myers said he had told Pangle to disassociate these small band groups from the school band after receiving a letter from the secretary of Local 172, American Federation of Musicians, stating Pangle's students were appearing commercially and in direct competition with union musicians.

A BAND BOARD meeting following the appearance of the newspaper ads was the scene of another Pangle "explosion," Myers testified. He said the defendant asked: "What do you want, a puppet on a string? This is my lifeblood!"

The prosecution also accused Pangle of failing to supply adequate chaperones for band activities away from school.

The major issue at the hearing Saturday was Pangle's alleged use of "unreasonable punishment to students, contrary to board policy." Students involved were Terry Ewing, Steven Ferrall and Candice Lawton.

On Aug. 29, Myers explained, he met with Mr. and Mrs. Ferrall, school principal William Menough and Pangle after learning from Menough about an incident during band camp.

In recalling the meeting—Myers said the Ferrall youth told him he had been practicing his instrument and not marking time when the director approached him and asked if he wished to remain in the band. Pangle then was said to have asked the student for an excuse because he had missed several band outings. Myers said the youth told him Pangle then "grabbed the front of his shirt, pulled a fatigue cap over his face, slapped his face and threatened 'I'll stomp you into the line markers'."

Pangle, Myers testified, admitted to all the charges except the accusation he slapped the boy.

Pangle was said to have stated he "patted the boy's face."

The following day, Myers said he sent a letter to Pangle expressing disapproval of his method of discipline and cautioned him further incidents of that type would result in Myers' recommendation to the Board of Education that Pangle be suspended and discharged.

School policy, Myers explained, allows corporal punishment, but prohibits striking a student about the head and face except in cases of self-defense.

THE QUESTIONING then led to what most observers felt was the catalyst for Pangle's suspension, his reported shoving of Miss Lawton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Lawton. Lawton is president of the Wellsville City Teachers Association and a member of City Council.

Myers said he observed confusion in the band bleachers following the half-time show during the Nov. 12 Beaver Local-Wellsville football game. He said he arrived to find Pangle being held by several adults, including Council Clerk Wayne Rose. Myers told of hearing some adults shout to Pangle, "You can't shove girls around," to which Pangle reportedly replied, "I can do what I want. I'm the director."

Myers reported Pangle appeared in "a state of shock" and said Mrs. Pangle had to lead him from the area and seat him. Myers recalled asking Menough to take control of the band and bring the students, described as being "ready to fight," under control.

Miss Lawton explained the incident to Myers in his office the following Monday, Myers continued. She told him when the senior band members were not recognized she yelled to the director, "in a sarcastic and nasty voice," 'Thanks a lot, Mr. Pangle." The girl reported she then returned to her seat and was subsequently hit on the arm by Pangle and spun around. "What do you mean, I worked hard for the seniors," Pangle was quoted as saying, upon which he threw her to the ground.

Miss Lawton also told Myers at the Nov. 14 meeting in his office that she felt she was hit in the head since an earring was knocked loose.

Attending the meeting were Pangle, Menough, the girl and her father, Myers explained. After excusing Lawton and the student, Myers said he told Pangle he was no longer wanted as band director and requested his resignation. When refused, Myers told the defendant he was suspended and the action became official at the board meeting that same night.

Other infractions charged to Pangle Saturday night were failure to provide adequate financial reports, disturbing school neighbors by playing his trumpet in the band room at odd hours, allowing students to drive his auto, permitting members to play their instruments in a manner which would disturb others in the school building and exceeding the required length of half-time band performances.

In his cross-examination of Myers, Berman questioned the superintendent as to Pangle's competency as a teacher and asked if directing a band did not involve more pupils and a greater discipline problem than most teaching assignments.

BERMAN, IN replying to the accusation that Pangle did not supply adequate chaperones, produced the school board's list of regulations and indicated the section which stated that providing chaperone's was a duty of the principal.

He also asked Myers if Pangle were not engaged in school activity 12 months of the year while being paid for 10. Myers replied for the most part he was.

Myers also admitted the late trumpet playing was done in order to arrange music for school performances and commented that Pangle even had asked to bring a cot into the band room so he might sleep there.

Under Berman's questioning, Myers explained that Steven Ferrall was "not as upset" as his parents at the meeting which followed the incident between him and Pangle. Ferrall was quite upset, Myers stated, and informed the superintendent "I don't care what you do with him." (Pangle)

Berman also cited as evidence various instances where Pangle had obeyed school regulations, acted conscientiously and devoted much effort to his job.

At 9:35, Berman received the board's approval to allow children who were detained to leave. Three Wellsville policemen were present, including Chief John Hephner.

Board member Russell Dysert was unable to be present. A majority vote is necessary before any formal suspension.

Youth To Enjoy Christmas After Being Deserted

Larry Shamp, 12, a fifth-grade East Liverpool student, is with his grandparents today after being reportedly abandoned by his mother in Wheeling Friday night.

He told Wheeling police that he and his mother, Dorothy Shamp, 37, and three younger sisters and man he called Homer Davis were in a car heading for California, where his father, whom he has not seen for six years, now resides.

An extensive search by Wheeling authorities led to the East Liverpool - Northern Hancock County area, where the boy's grandparents, identified as Mr. and Mrs. Gib Michaels of Lawrenceville, finally were contacted.

They picked up the boy Saturday afternoon.

It also was revealed that a private individual in Wheeling who took compassion on the boy will present him with Christmas gifts, including a bicycle.

FAMILY-SIZE LOADS — 2 Double Sheets plus pillow cases, or 35 diapers, or 12 men's shirts. Washes even the most delicate things.

TURBO-ACTION AGITATION — The unique HOOVER energy disk, located on the back of the washer tub, actually surges water through the clothes. This remarkable wash action gets clothes really clean.

SAVES $$ ON WATER — Uses only 1/3 the amount of water that most automatics use. Saves up to 100 gallons every 3 loads. 100 GALLONS

SAVES $$ ON DETERGENT — The washing action is so efficient, it needs less detergent than the agitator or tumbler-type washer. It has a SUDS-SAVER, too!

County Needs Improved Trash, Garbage System

cubic yard to deposit waste at Mahoning County sites—$8 for a load on a 20-yard packer.

Columbiana and Fairfield Township operate an open dump, with an expenditure of $2,200 a year for leasing, custodial care and bulldozer rental.

The village has one licensed hauler who also serves Rogers, Negley and New Waterford, the 1,100 customers spending almost $30,000 a year. The hauler operates a good sanitary landfill in Section 35, Fairfield Township, which is used for disposal by the contract hauler operating in East Palestine where 1,500 families spend $27,000 annually.

New Waterford pays $500 a year for trash removal in addition to the private service.

Hanover Township has two open dumps which cost the township some $3,000 annually. There is no custodian provided.

A commercial pickup service is paid over $8,400 a year by some 350 families.

At Wellsville, some 1,500 of the 2,200 homes subscribe to the collection service, the city income averaging $31,000 a year.

Across the county, 22 private haulers are licensed by the county health department. These haulers operate 24 vehicles, 17 of which are packer trucks and seven dump trucks or trailers.

In East Liverpool, the levy provides $104,000 a year, entitling all residents to weekly pickup of garbage and bi-weekly pickup of trash. Merchants and commercial haulers pay fees to the city landfill — some $10,000 a year for disposal at the site.

The landfill has established hours, a full-time custodian and is open to the public. The survey by the state aide termed it "by far, the best operation in the county."

East Liverpool residents are paying about $16 a year for their garbage and trash collection.

The report indicates the following improvements are needed countywide:

1.—Definite standards should be set for storage containers.

2.—Vehicle specifications for the hauler licensing program.

3. — More detailed requirements should be established for sanitary landfills.

4.—Better financing so wastes can be collected from all sources and taken to a nuisance - free disposal site.

THE APPARENT best method is a levy-supported operation, such as East Liverpool's, in which all households are provided with service from a broad-based tax.

A municipal collection also seems especially suited, although some haulers provide good service.

The county health department has worked to eliminate many of the offensive roadside dumps and has helped to raise standards at the authorized dumps.

But there continue to be trash eyesores across the county and dumps infested with rodents and unsanitary conditions, where smouldering rubbish contaminates the air with acrid smoke and odors.

In a properly - operated landfill, soil is bulldozed over the layers of garbage and trash daily to keep out rats and insects.

The growth of towns and cities and the development of the townships requires that a planned method of disposing of solid wastes be worked out soon and that means of collecting the wastes be improved.

Plans are being made to launch a survey to determine how and where properly located landfill sites can be provided in a countywide plan for disposal.

The County Regional Planning Commission, if such a survey can be made, hopes to make recommendations to the county commissioners on such a disposal system.

Leaders of every community and township will be asked to re-evaluate collection and disposal systems in order to best implement a working, efficient and economical operation.

Getting rid of trash and garbage today is more than just moving it out of sight. Our growing area is running out of time and space.

Furthermore, the convenience, economy and health safeguards of a good disposal plan are important to every home and every community.

Patrol Lists 4 Accidents On Weekend

Two drivers received minor injuries in four district highway mishaps over the weekend, the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon reported.

William T. Sanders, 18, of Salem was cited after his 1960 auto veered off a curve on Route 172, about five miles west of Route 30, Sunday night at 9:20.

The auto went off the right side, then off the left side and struck an embankment, according to officers, who said Sanders received minor injuries. He was charged with speeding.

George Casto, 17, of Hanoverton R.D. 1 also was charged with speeding after his 1961 coach overturned along Township Rd. 736, about a third of a mile south of Route 172 Saturday at 5:15 p.m.

Casto lost control on a curve and the car went off the right side and overturned, resting on its top. He suffered minor injuries.

Gary Virgil Booth, 17, of New Waterford R.D. 1 was charged with improper passing after his car and another collided on Route 46 just east of Route 7 Sunday morning at 12:30.

Booth attempted to pass a 1964 coach driven by Gary Lee Hawkins, 26, of New Waterford R.D. 1 as the latter made a left turn into a private drive.

Charles Samuel Gorby, 62, of Negley R.D. and James S. Simanella, 36, of Alliance escaped injury in a mishap on Route 30 about four miles south of Lisbon Saturday.

Intruder Loots Home In St. Clair Township

LISBON — An heirloom clock, a vacuum sweeper, two watches and a three-speed record player were taken from an unlocked St. Clair Township home between 1 and 9:20 p. m. Saturday.

Mrs. Jacquelyn Dray of Dell School Rd. notified the sheriff's office of the loss Sunday morning. Deputy Kent Garvey investigated. He said entry was made through the unlocked front door.

Board Will Meet

LISBON — The Columbiana County Board of Education will meet tonight at 8:30 in the rooms at the Courthouse, with President Allan G. Chamberlin of Leetonia R. D. 2 in charge.

Machine Breakdown Slows Palestine Mail

EAST PALESTINE — The annual Christmas mail rush at the post office here became a near crisis Saturday when the mail canceling machine broke down at 9:15 a. m. and was not repaired until 1:15 p. m.

Postmaster Harry Andrus said the failure of the machine, which handles 4,000 letters an hour, caused a "complication" in the mail processing, and employes worked Sunday to ease the jam.

He said the mail volume is running above average, and the heaviest incoming mail is expected today. Two additional carriers have been added for the holidays — Mrs. Alice Hornsby of Unity Rd. and Dave McConahy of W. Martin St.

Kiesinger Says He May Help Narrow U.S.-French 'Split'

NEW YORK (AP) — West erman Chancellor Kurt Georg Kiesinger says his government may be able to help overcome some of the difficulties between France and the United States.

The chancellor, who announced last week that his government would make a major effort to coordinate policy with France, spoke Sunday on the Columbia Broadcasting System's "Face the Nation" television program.

Asked how Germany could be friends with both France and the United States, in view of current Franco-American difficulties, Kiesinger said: "I have always refused to accept the alternative of either the United States or France."

France, he noted in the interview which was recorded in Bonn, is "the oldest ally of America here in Europe. And I am firmly convinced that this longstanding tradition of friendship will one day be revived."

"And in this sense," he continued, "I feel we could try — I do not want to overrate our own capabilities and possibilities — but we can try to help overcome some of these difficulties existing today between France and the United States."

He did not spell out how his government might act as mediator.

The chancellor said Germany did not intend to follow France's example and pull its forces out of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

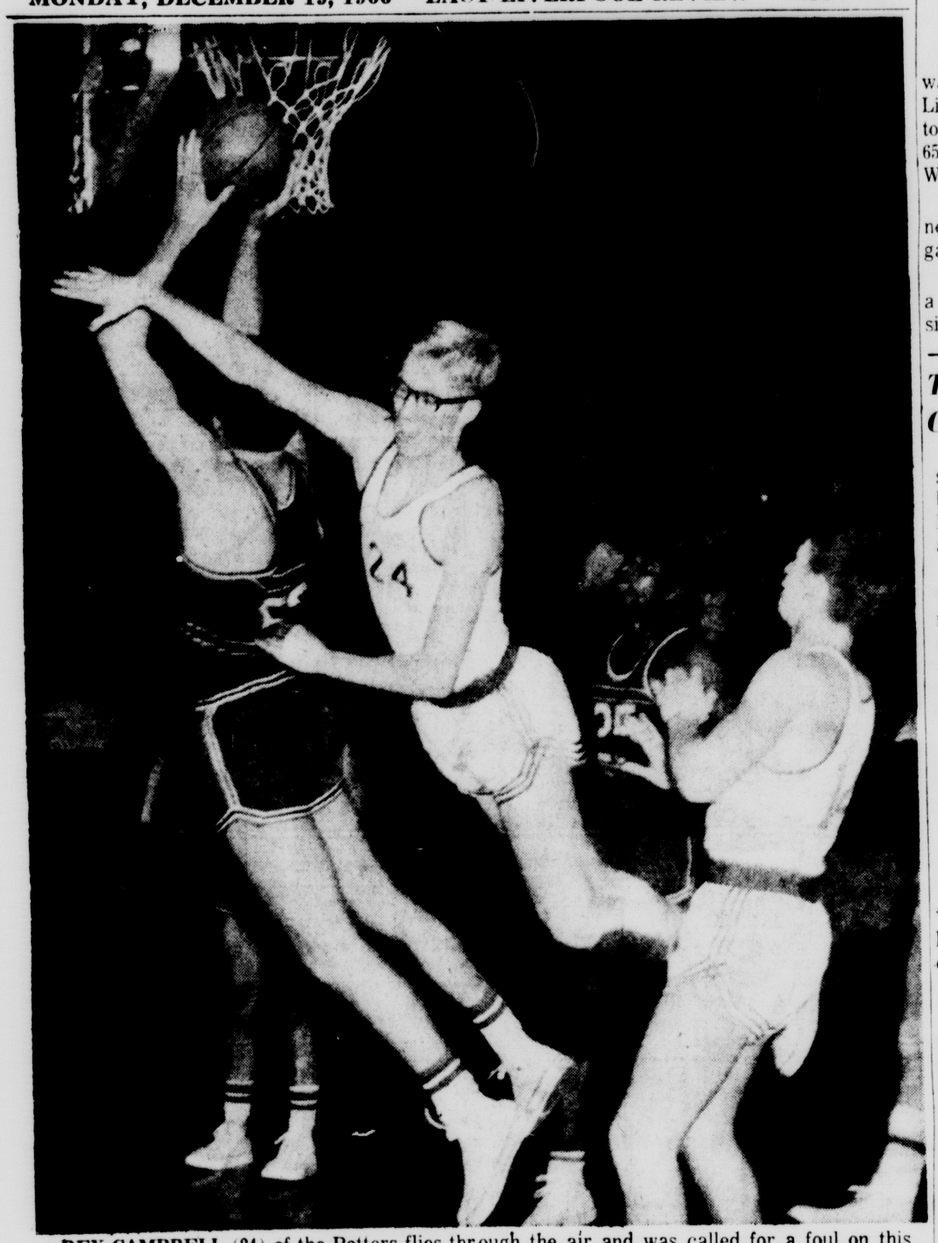
Potters Drop Third Straight; Warren On Top, 65-56



REX CAMPBELL (24) of the Potters flies through the air and was called for a foul on this play as he crashed into Warren's Tom Cope who was attempting to shoot during action Saturday night at Memorial Auditorium. At the right is East Liverpool's Earl Diddle.

Turnovers, Poor Shooting Costly

By BOB DUFFY
Review Sports Editor

A return to the home court wasn't much help to the East Liverpool Potters, who skidded to their third straight loss in a 65-56 setback at the hands of Warren Saturday night.

East Liverpool, which shows a 1-3 record following successive losses at Alliance and Midland, could hit only 30 per cent on 22 of 70 attempts.

—:—

THE POTTERS' first - year mentor, Clinton McConnell, only could point to the numerous errors by his team, which committed 34 turnovers. That is how many times the Potters lost the ball mostly by violations and poor passing.

Warren, which now holds a 2-3 record, found the local court to its liking in hitting 45 per cent from the floor.

THE POTTERS rebounded better, but lost the ball on too many occasions and again lacked a solid offensive punch.

Warren was led by sharp-shooting Dave Thomas, a southpaw, who helped the Panthers to the state semi-finals last year. Thomas pumped in 19 points, while big Tom Cope, a 6-4 junior, dropped in 18 and pulled down 20 rebounds.

These two had help from high-jumping Lionel Thomas, who added 13 points and took 12 rebounds.

VERN SMITH, the Potters' leading scorer, took game honors with 22 points, hitting nine of 23 shots. Smith still seemed bottled up on the inside, but moved outside occasionally to score.

Mike McVay continued his consistent point production, with 15. Eleven came in the second half, including eight in the final period.

Bruce Christian was next in line with nine. Smith and Christian paced the rebound department with 12 and 11, respectively.

East Liverpool got off to a bad start in the shooting department, making only three of its first 15 attempts.

IF WARREN had been hitting with any consistency from the foul line, the Panthers would have established a much larger margin.

Regardless, the Panthers held a 16-11 first period lead, making eight of 20 field goal attempts.

The Potters never got any closer than six points throughout the third period and trailed 47-38 when the quarter ended.

COPE broke loose in the pivot for Warren in the third quarter, hitting four goals.

Through the final period, East Liverpool didn't get closer than nine points, although the Potters had their most productive quarter of the night, scoring 18 points.

Tickets For Weirton On Sale There Only

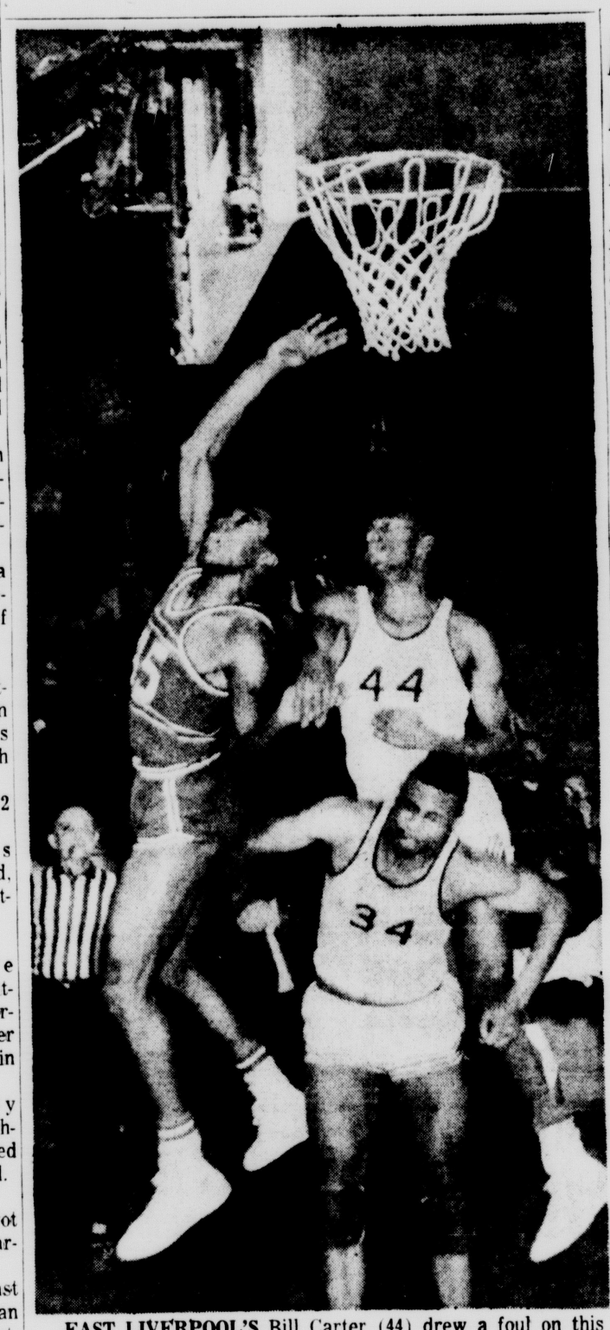
There will be no reserve seats for Thursday night's basketball game between East Liverpool and Weirton at Weirton.

Harold Ginder, ELHS ticket manager, said there will be no sale of tickets here. The general admission tickets—50 cents for students and $1 for adults — must be obtained at the gate the night of the game.

The contest will be played at the high school fieldhouse, not at the Community Center, Ginder reminded.

The reserve game will start at 6:30, with the varsity battle scheduled about 8.

Palestine Nips Foe



EAST LIVERPOOL'S Bill Carter (44) drew a foul on this play as he attempted to block a shot by Warren's Linsey Frazier (45). Carter wound up crashing down on the back of teammate Vern Smith (34).

Beaver Rally Falls Short In 4th Loss

Beaver Local, playing again without the services of its star Bill Barnhart, dropped a 42-41 decision to a hustling East Palestine five Saturday night at the Beaver gym.

The Beavers, who trailed by 38-29 entering the fourth quarter, made a brilliant comeback but couldn't overtake East Palestine as Dan Scott's foul shot iced the contest in the final minute of play.

The Bulldogs, who won their third game in six starts, led 28-19 at halftime following a 13-13 first quarter tie.

The loss pushed Beaver Local's losing streak to four straight. Barnhart, the top scorer for the Beavers before a knee injury put him on the sidelines, also missed Friday's game with Toronto.

East Palestine didn't show one player in the double figures but seven cagers broke into the scoring column with Jim Parker scoring eight for the two-platoon forces of the Bulldogs.

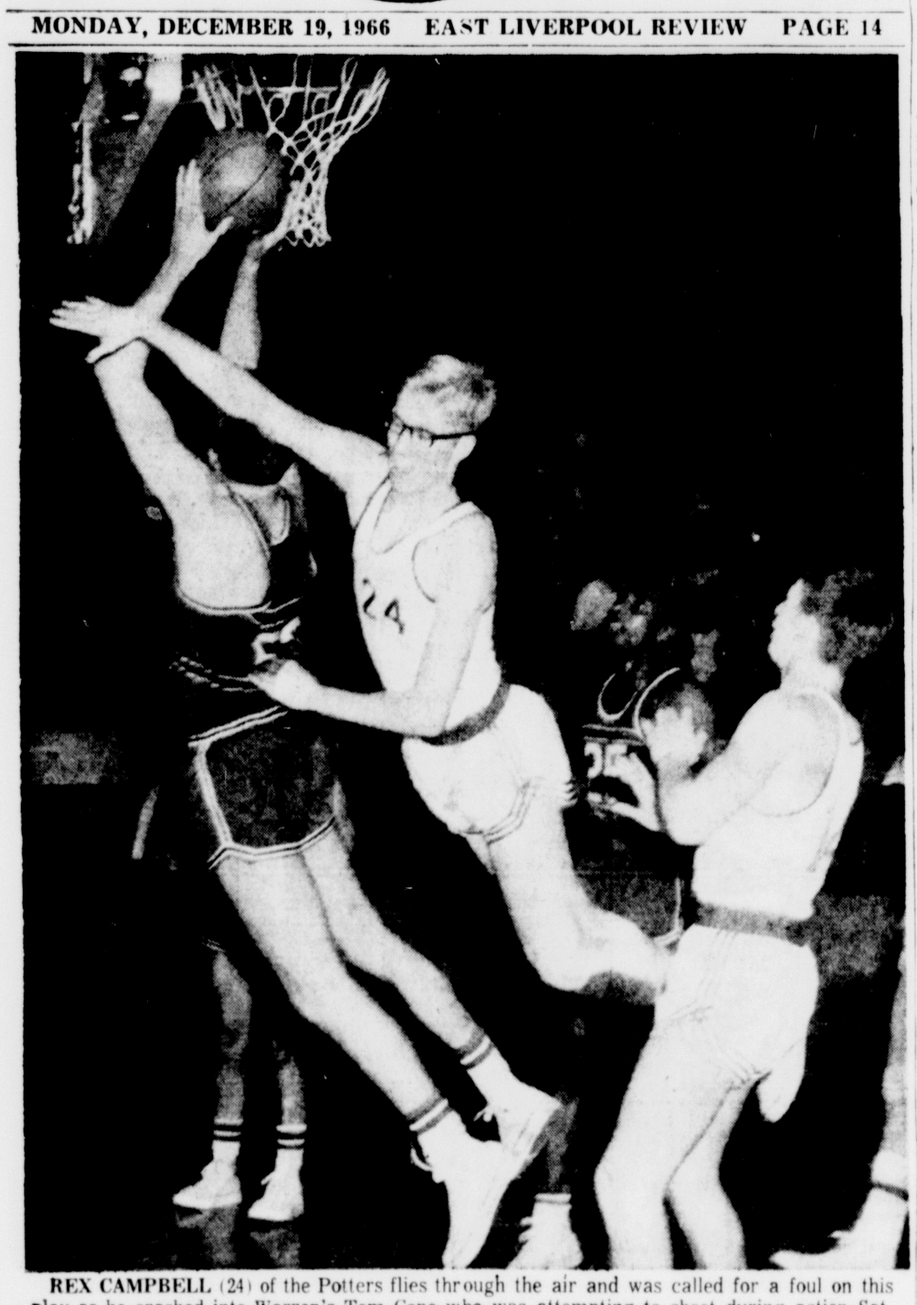
Potters Drop Third Straight; Warren On Top, 65-56

The Review Sports

MONDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1966 EAST LIVERPOOL REVIEW PAGE 14



REX CAMPBELL (24) of the Potters flies through the air and was called for a foul on this play as he crashed into Warren's Tom Cope who was attempting to shoot during action Saturday night at Memorial Auditorium. At the right is East Liverpool's Earl Diddle.

Turnovers, Poor Shooting Costly

By BOB DUFFY
Review Sports Editor

A return to the home court wasn't much help to the East Liverpool Potters, who skidded to their third straight loss in a 65-56 setback at the hands of Warren Saturday night.

East Liverpool, which shows a 1-3 record following successive losses at Alliance and Midland, could hit only 30 per cent on 22 of 70 attempts.

—:—

THE POTTERS' first - year mentor, Clinton McConnell, only could point to the numerous errors by his team, which committed 34 turnovers. That is how many times the Potters lost the ball mostly by violations and poor passing.

Warren, which now holds a 2-3 record, found the local court to its liking in hitting 45 per cent from the floor.

THE POTTERS rebounded better, but lost the ball on too many occasions and again lacked a solid offensive punch.

Warren was led by sharpshooting Dave Thomas, a southpaw, who helped the Panthers to the state semi-finals last year. Thomas pumped in 19 points, while big Tom Cope, a 6-4 junior, dropped in 18 and pulled down 20 rebounds.

These two had help from high-jumping Lionel Thomas, who added 13 points and took 12 rebounds.

VERN SMITH, the Potters' leading scorer, took game honors with 22 points, hitting nine of 23 shots. Smith still seemed bottled up on the inside, but moved outside occasionally to score.

Mike McVay continued his consistent point production, with 15. Eleven came in the second half, including eight in the final period.

Bruce Christian was next in line with nine. Smith and Christian paced the rebound department with 12 and 11, respectively.

East Liverpool got off to a bad start in the shooting department, making only three of its first 15 attempts.

IF WARREN had been hitting with any consistency from the foul line, the Panthers would have established a much larger margin.

Regardless, the Panthers held a 16-11 first period lead, making eight of 20 field goal attempts.

The Potters never got any closer than six points throughout the third period and trailed 47-38 when the quarter ended.

COPE broke loose in the pivot for Warren in the third quarter, hitting four goals.

Through the final period, East Liverpool didn't get closer than nine points, although the Potters had their most productive quarter of the night, scoring 18 points.

Tickets For Weirton On Sale There Only

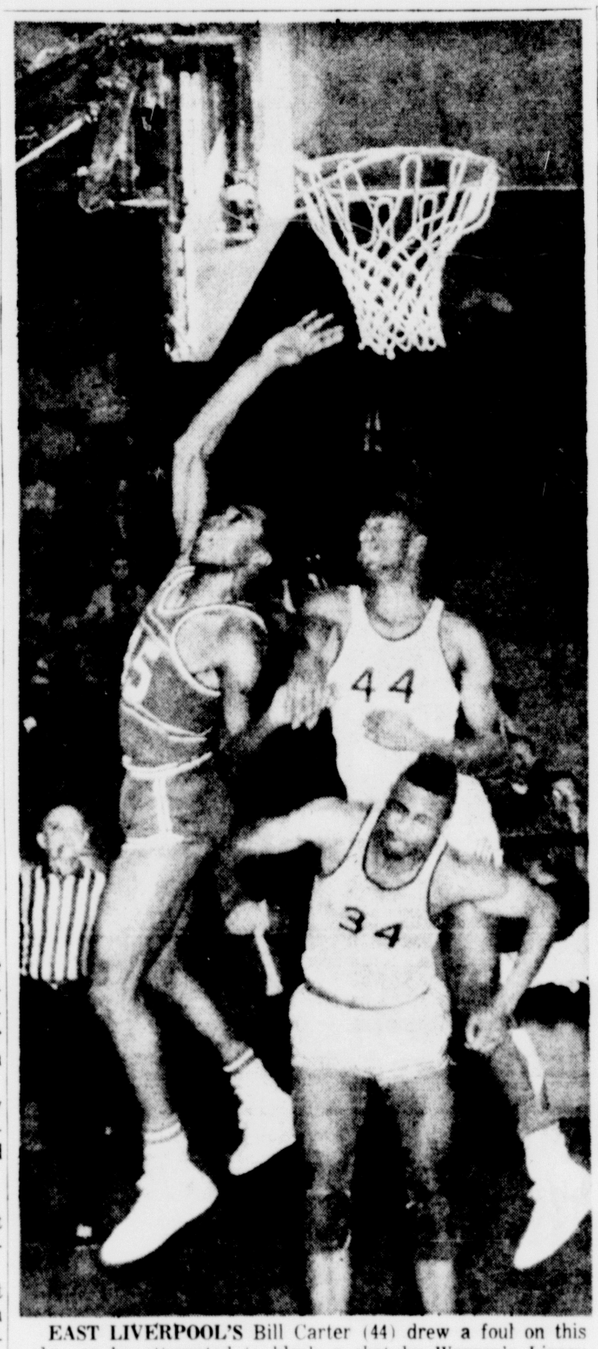
There will be no reserve seats for Thursday night's basketball game between East Liverpool and Weirton at Weirton.

Harold Ginder, ELHS ticket manager, said there will be no sale of tickets here. The general admission tickets—50 cents for students and $1 for adults — must be obtained at the gate the night of the game.

The contest will be played at the high school fieldhouse, not at the Community Center, Ginder reminded.

The reserve game will start at 6:30, with the varsity battle scheduled about 8.

Palestine Nips Foe



EAST LIVERPOOL'S Bill Carter (44) drew a foul on this play as he attempted to block a shot by Warren's Linsey Frazier (45). Carter wound up crashing down on the back of teammate Vern Smith (34).

Beaver Rally Falls Short In 4th Loss

Beaver Local, playing again without the services of its star Bill Barnhart, dropped a 42-41 decision to a hustling East Palestine five Saturday night at the Beaver gym.

The Beavers, who trailed by 38-29 entering the fourth quarter, made a brilliant comeback but couldn't overtake East Palestine as Dan Scott's foul shot iced the contest in the final minute of play.

The Bulldogs, who won their third game in six starts, led 28-19 at halftime following a 13-13 first quarter tie.

The loss pushed Beaver Local's losing streak to four straight. Barnhart, the top scorer for the Beavers before a knee injury put him on the sidelines, also missed Friday's game with Toronto.

East Palestine didn't show one player in the double figures but seven cagers broke into the scoring column with Jim Parker scoring eight for the two-platoon forces of the Bulldogs.

Dallas, Packers Wait Title Battle

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

While Lombardi's Green Bay Packers and Landry's Dallas Cowboys looked forward today to their National Football League championship date Jan. 1 and a berth in the Super Bowl two weeks later, Bergman looked back on the most harrowing five minutes of his NFL officiating career.

San Francisco fans, angered by a wave of penalties in the 49ers' 30-14 loss to Baltimore Sunday, took it out on the officials — with Head Linesman Bergman the primary target — in the closing minutes.

First, a woman fan dashed from the stands, lifted the linesman's penalty handkerchief from his back pocket and raced away. Then, after the officials ended the game 30 seconds early while fans pulled down one of the goal posts and swarmed over the field, Bergman was pelted with whisky bottles and knocked dizzy as he made his way to the dressing rooms.

Two Baltimore players and another official finally helped Bergman reach his quarters after he had been struck on the head twice by bottles.

There were 12 penalties called against the 49ers and nine against the Colts — for a total of 192 yards — in the fiercely played game for second place in the Western Conference. Four touchdown passes by Johnny Unitas won it for the Colts, who'll meet Philadelphia in the NFL Playoff Bowl at Miami Jan. 8.

Meanwhile, the Cowboys, who clinched the Eastern Conference title Saturday when Cleveland eliminated St. Louis 38-10, struggled to a 17-7 victory over New York and the Packers, who nailed the Western crown a week ago, held off Los Angeles 27-23.

The Eagles earned the Eastern Conference berth in the Playoff Bowl by outscoring Washington 37-28 to finish in a second-place tie with Cleveland. They'll go to Miami because the Browns were there more recently — in January, 1964.

Elsewhere, Gale Sayers returned the opening kickoff 90 yards for a touchdown and then shredded Minnesota's defense for 197 rushing yards as Chicago drubbed the Vikings 41-28 and Bill Nelsen passed for 344 yards and two touchdowns in Pittsburgh's 57-33 romp over Atlanta.

In the American Football League, Buffalo won the Eastern Division title by thrashing Denver 38-21; Kansas City's Western Division champs topped San Diego 27-17 and Miami nipped Houston 29-28. New York whipped Boston 38-28 in a Saturday AFL game.

Texas Blanks Mississippi In Bluebonnet

By The Associated Press

The post season college football bowl season moves from Houston to El Paso, Tex., and Montgomery, Ala., this week as Florida State meets Wyoming in the Sun Bowl and two all-star squads clash in the Blue-Gray game on Saturday.

In the Bluebonnet Bowl at Houston last Saturday, Texas blanked Mississippi 19-0 with slight Chris Gilbert starring for the Longhorns.

At El Paso, Wyoming, which lost only to Colorado State during the regular season, and Florida State, 6-4 after finishing a rough schedule, battle in a nationally televised game that can be seen on NBC at 4 p.m. EST.

The Blue-Gray game will also be televised, on CBS at 2 p.m., EST. Top seniors from colleges around the country will participate. Virgil Carter, Brigham Young quarterback, will call the signals for the Blue, while Baylor's Terry Southall does the job for the Gray.

Gilbert, a sophomore tailback, ran for 156 yards against a highly regarded Mississippi defense, a record for the Blue Bonnet Bowl.

"I shudder every time he runs," Texas Coach Darrell Royal said after the game. "He takes an awful beating, weighing only 172 pounds, but he always comes back."

But it was Mississippi Coach Johnny Vaught who did the shuddering Saturday.

"They beat us in every department," Vaught said when it was all over. "Both their offensive and their defensive lines tore us up real well."

Bills And Chiefs Paired For Crown

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Hanging on a wall in the Buffalo Bills' dressing room is a facsimile of a check for $25,000.

Measuring about two feet by four feet and made out to John Q. Buffalo Bill, the check refers to the extra money each player on the American Football League champion could earn for the AFL title game and the Super Bowl with the National League champion.

Buffalo and New York created that situation, the Bills beating Denver 38-21 Sunday after the Jets upset Boston 38-28 the day before.

The Bills' victory gave them their third straight Eastern Division title, one made possible when Boston lost. If the Patriots had won or tied, the crown would have been theirs.

Now the Bills will host Kansas City in the AFL championship game Jan. 1, with the winner expected to get about $6,000 a man. That winner then will advance to the Super Bowl in Los Angeles Jan. 15, and a victory there will be worth at least $15,000 a man.

The two-game total of $21,000 is slightly less than the check on the Bills' dressing room wall, but the check was written early in the season — after Buffalo had lost its first two games.

"I had it made up to dramatize the situation," Bills' quarterback Jack Kemp said. "A friend of mine suggested it, and I had my babysitters make it up."

Now the Bills can't wait to endorse it.

In other final regular season games Sunday, Kansas City defeated San Diego 27-17 and Miami edged Houston 29-28.

Don Hoak Named As Phils' Coach

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Don Hoak—a scrappy third baseman who played the waning days of his career with the Philadelphia Phillies—is coming back to the National League baseball team as a coach.

"Don is generally accepted as a top baseball mind, especially by me," said Phillies' manager Gene Mauch Saturday after the team disclosed Hoak had been hired for the 1967 season.

The 38-year - old Hoak, who worked last season as a "color" man on radio and television broadcasts for the Pittsburgh Pirates is the third new coach hired by the Phillies for 1967.

Hoak broke into the National League in 1954 with the Dodgers then in Brooklyn. He also played with the Chicago Cubs, Cincinnati Reds and Pirates, posting a lifetime batting average of .265.

Rarely a long-ball threat, Hoak was known more as a pesky-type hitter and fiery player who would battle for a run.

The other new coaches on the staff are, Larry Shepard, who will be in charge of pitchers, and Andy Seminick, who will supervise the bullpen.

Gehrig Award Goes To Brooks Robinson

BALTIMORE (AP) — Brooks Robinson, third baseman for the Baltimore Orioles is the winner of the 12th annual Lou Gehrig Memorial Award, the chairman of the selection committee has announced.

Announcement of the winner was made Sunday by Chads O. Skinner, committee chairman.

"Brooks Robinson is not only a great infielder and a dangerous hitter," said Skinner, but he also "possesses a superb competitive spirit, exceptional physical durability, and personal qualities that make him an exceptional credit to his team and to the game of baseball."

Dallas, Packers Wait Title Battle

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

While Lombardi's Green Bay Packers and Landry's Dallas Cowboys looked forward today to their National Football League championship date Jan. 1 and a berth in the Super Bowl two weeks later, Bergman looked back on the most harrowing five minutes of his NFL officiating career.

San Francisco fans, angered by a wave of penalties in the 49ers' 30-14 loss to Baltimore Sunday, took it out on the officials — with Head Linesman Bergman the primary target — in the closing minutes.

First, a woman fan dashed from the stands, lifted the linesman's penalty handkerchief from his back pocket and raced away. Then, after the officials ended the game 30 seconds early while fans pulled down one of the goal posts and swarmed over the field, Bergman was pelted with whisky bottles and knocked dizzy as he made his way to the dressing rooms.

Two Baltimore players and another official finally helped Bergman reach his quarters after he had been struck on the head twice by bottles.

There were 12 penalties called against the 49ers and nine against the Colts — for a total of 192 yards — in the fiercely played game for second place in the Western Conference. Four touchdown passes by Johnny Unitas won it for the Colts, who'll meet Philadelphia in the NFL Playoff Bowl at Miami Jan. 8.

Meanwhile, the Cowboys, who clinched the Eastern Conference title Saturday when Cleveland eliminated St. Louis 38-10, struggled to a 17-7 victory over New York and the Packers, who nailed the Western crown a week ago, held off Los Angeles 27-23.

The Eagles earned the Eastern Conference berth in the Playoff Bowl by outscoring Washington 37-28 to finish in a second-place tie with Cleveland. They'll go to Miami because the Browns were there more recently — in January, 1964.

Elsewhere, Gale Sayers returned the opening kickoff 90 yards for a touchdown and then shredded Minnesota's defense for 197 rushing yards as Chicago drubbed the Vikings 41-28 and Bill Nelsen passed for 344 yards and two touchdowns in Pittsburgh's 57-33 romp over Atlanta.

In the American Football League, Buffalo won the Eastern Division title by thrashing Denver 38-21; Kansas City's Western Division champs topped San Diego 27-17 and Miami nipped Houston 29-28. New York whipped Boston 38-28 in a Saturday AFL game.

Texas Blanks Mississippi In Bluebonnet

By The Associated Press

The post season college football bowl season moves from Houston to El Paso, Tex., and Montgomery, Ala., this week as Florida State meets Wyoming in the Sun Bowl and two all-star squads clash in the Blue-Gray game on Saturday.

At El Paso, Wyoming, which lost only to Colorado State during the regular season, and Florida State, 6-4 after finishing a rough schedule, battle in a nationally televised game that can be seen on NBC at 4 p.m. EST.

The Blue-Gray game will also be televised, on CBS at 2 p.m., EST. Top seniors from colleges around the country will participate. Virgil Carter, Brigham Young quarterback, will call the signals for the Blue, while Baylor's Terry Southall does the job for the Gray.

Gilbert, a sophomore tailback, ran for 156 yards against a highly regarded Mississippi defense, a record for the Blue Bonnet Bowl.

"I shudder every time he runs," Texas Coach Darrell Royal said after the game. "He takes an awful beating, weighing only 172 pounds, but he always comes back."

But it was Mississippi Coach Johnny Vaught who did the shuddering Saturday.

"They beat us in every department," Vaught said when it was all over. "Both their offensive and their defensive lines tore us up real well."

AFL Contest Jan. 1

Bills And Chiefs Paired For Crown

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Hanging on a wall in the Buffalo Bills' dressing room is a facsimile of a check for $25,000.

Measuring about two feet by four feet and made out to John Q. Buffalo Bill, the check refers to the extra money each player on the American Football League champion could earn for the AFL title game and the Super Bowl with the National League champion.

The Bills can make the check negotiable. The Boston Patriots can't.

Buffalo and New York created that situation, the Bills beating Denver 38-21 Sunday after the Jets upset Boston 38-28 the day before.

The Bills' victory gave them their third straight Eastern Division title, one made possible when Boston lost. If the Patriots had won or tied, the crown would have been theirs.

Now the Bills will host Kansas City in the AFL championship game Jan. 1, with the winner expected to get about $6,000 a man. That winner then will advance to the Super Bowl in Los Angeles Jan. 15, and a victory there will be worth at least $15,000 a man.

The two-game total of $21,000 is slightly less than the check on the Bills' dressing room wall, but the check was written early in the season — after Buffalo had lost its first two games.

"I had it made up to dramatize the situation," Bills' quarterback Jack Kemp said. "A friend of mine suggested it, and I had my babysitters make it up."

Now the Bills can't wait to endorse it.

In other final regular season games Sunday, Kansas City defeated San Diego 27-17 and Miami edged Houston 29-28.

Don Hoak Named As Phils' Coach

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Don Hoak—a scrappy third baseman who played the waning days of his career with the Philadelphia Phillies—is coming back to the National League baseball team as a coach.

"Don is generally accepted as a top baseball mind, especially by me," said Phillies' manager Gene Mauch Saturday after the team disclosed Hoak had been hired for the 1967 season.

The 38-year-old Hoak, who worked last season as a "color" man on radio and television broadcasts for the Pittsburgh Pirates is the third new coach hired by the Phillies for 1967.

Hoak broke into the National League in 1954 with the Dodgers then in Brooklyn. He also played with the Chicago Cubs, Cincinnati Reds and Pirates, posting a lifetime batting average of .265.

Rarely a long-ball threat, Hoak was known more as a pesky-type hitter and fiery player who would battle for a run.

The other new coaches on the staff are, Larry Shepard, who will be in charge of pitchers, and Andy Seminick, who will supervise the bullpen.

Gehrig Award Goes To Brooks Robinson

BALTIMORE (AP) — Brooks Robinson, third baseman for the Baltimore Orioles is the winner of the 12th annual Lou Gehrig Memorial Award, the chairman of the selection committee has announced.

Announcement of the winner was made Sunday by Chads O. Skinner, committee chairman.

"Brooks Robinson is not only a great infielder and a dangerous hitter," said Skinner, but he also "possesses a superb competitive spirit, exceptional physical durability, and personal qualities that make him an exceptional credit to his team and to the game of baseball."

Highest Award For Heroism

Pennsylvania Lieutenant Receives Medal Of Honor

WASHINGTON (AP) — Army Lt. Walter J. Marm Jr., whose family had wondered what kind of soldier he would make, receives the nation's highest award for heroism today.

Sixteen relatives and members of Marm's family were to be present today when Secretary of the Army Stanley R. Resor presents him the Medal of Honor for courage during the battle of Ia Drang in November 1965.

Marm, 25, of Washington, Pa., is credited with killing 18 North Vietnamese soldiers firing on his platoon at the foot of Chu Pong Mountain. He was wounded in the battle.

"To tell you the truth, I didn't know what kind of soldier Joey would be," Marm's father, Walter J. Marm Sr., said when President Johnson signed the citation last Nov. 16.

"He'd never been in a fight in his life," said the retired Pennsylvania state policeman. "I never knew him to be mad at anybody.

The day of the battle, Marm's platoon had joined a battalion assault into an elephant grass-cluttered field near the Ia Drang River. As they advanced to their position, they came onto a clearing and suddenly were blasted by mortar shells.

One machine gun was firing from the side of a big anthill 50 yards in front of the platoon.

"The first thing I did," Marm recalled last month, "was fire a rocket launcher at the bunker. Then I took two grenades and an M16 rifle and went straight up.

"The enemy kept firing back and I told my men to hold their fire and kept advancing until I got close to the bunker.

"I pulled the pin of a grenade and just lobbed it over. After it went off I went around to the left, saw some movements and fired. I fired six times, but didn't know then how many there were. They told me there were 18, but I didn't know."

LISBON — The Board of Education met Saturday night at the administration building to consider applications for clerk.

Supt. Joe Driscoll said the board took no action Saturday, but will make an appointment at the reorganization meeting Jan. 10.

Will Entertain GIs

Bob Hope's 'Task Force' Set To 'Invade' Vietnam

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — The GIs in Vietnam are getting ready for a Christmas invasion, and some of it should be fun.

Bob Hope commands the largest task force of invaders, but the bare legs and jokes of his troupe will share the spotlight with Billy Graham, Francis Cardinal Spellman and several congressmen.

Evangelist Graham and the Roman Catholic archbishop of New York both have scheduled trips to military installations and will conduct some religious services.

Hope left Los Angeles Friday with his 69-member fun company for his 15th annual Christmas tour and his 25th journey to entertain American servicemen.

Hope's troupe also includes Phyllis Diller, Joey Heatherton, Anita Bryant, Les Brown and his band, and the Korean Kittens. They will perform in Vietnam, Guam, Thailand and the Philippines.

Gen. Earle Johnson, U.S. Army chief of staff, also will be in Vietnam this week. But the average soldier will be a lot more interested in Chris Noel, a 26-year-old disc jockey who is in Saigon to attract attention for her program. Her 36-24-36 dimensions, mini-skirt eight inches above the knee, green eyes and blonde hair attracted considerable attention on the street Sunday. She will be on the armed forces radio all this week.

Author John Steinbeck also is visiting with troops and four members of Congress are expected to remain for the holidays — Sen. Stuart Symington, D-Mo., and Reps. Joseph Y. Resnick, D-N.Y., George W. Grider, D-Tenn., and Lera Thomas, D-Tex.

Although both sides have proclaimed 48-hour cease- fires for Christmas and New Year's, some of the GIs will miss the visiting VIP's because they will be on watch-posts with eyes peeled for an unwanted Viet Cong visitor.

Humphrey Says He And LBJ Vow To Win 'Poverty War'

NEW YORK (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey said today he and President Johnson remain committed without reservation "to winning the war against poverty (and) against ignorance."

"There will be disappointments and even failures as we move ahead toward our goal. But we stand committed," he said in remarks prepared for a ground-breaking ceremony for Pace College's $12-million campus center in lower Manhattan.

Noting recent critical studies of Project Head Start — the educational program for disadvantaged preschool children — he said the studies "substantiated what we have sensed all along:

"That what is gained (in the program) can be lost in a short period of time if the necessary follow-through is not assured, if the Head Start youngster moves into an indifferent school system that deadens the barely kindled spark in his mind.

"We have learned that Head Start has been no more than a false start for far too many young children for whom we held high hope. Does that mean we should abandon Project Head Start?"

The vice president suggested the solution lies instead in application of Head Start's "high standards and innovations into the first few grades of elementary school — a teacher for every 15 students, for example."

He said Harold Howe, federal commissioner of education, "intends to see that proposals for innovations and new programs at the elementary level are given rapid and favorable consideration in the year ahead."

3 Youths Killed During Scuffle

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — Police said a scuffle early Sunday ended in the fatal shooting of three 17-year-old high school pupils. A fourth pupil was critically wounded.

Maj. F. J. Vasal said Richard Otis, 21, of Eureka, Mo., was charged by the prosecuting attorney's office with three counts of second-degree murder. Two brothers, aged 14 and 15, were held by juvenile authorities pending further investigation.

Vasel said the victims, each shot once with a .25 caliber automatic pistol, were Michael Tinsley, Joseph Michaels, and Gary Ratliff. Steve Schroeder, 16, is hospitalized with a bullet lodged in his liver, police said. The youths attended Roosevelt High School in St. Louis.

The shooting occurred during a party at a remote clubhouse near the Meramec River in South St. Louis County. Vasel said there was evidence that the youths at the party had been drinking beer.

Pilot Error Blamed In Fatal Plane Crash

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pilot error was blamed in a federal aviation agency report today for a plane crash at North Jackson, Ohio, in which a student pilot was killed.

Harold M. Jones Jr., 36, of North Jackson, Mahoning County, died in the crash last May 25 at the Executive Airport in North Jackson while attempting to land his single engine plane.

The FAA report listed as the probable cause "the pilot misjudged level off and made improper recovery from the resulting bounced landing."

Will Present Play

WEST POINT — The West Point Church of the Nazarene Young People's Association will present a Christmas play, "From File T," Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. at the church. Miss Sue Reynolds, president, will be in charge.

400 Take Part In Yule Party For Calcutta

Children and their parents of the fire district were present.

The Rev. Carl Stockdale of the Anderson Methodist Church led prayer and gave the Christmas message.

Thirty - six students of the Larry Myers Dancing School entertained. Santa Claus made his appearance and led carol singing, followed by the grand march and distribution of treats. Coffee and cookies were served the adults.

Guests were from Midland, Wellsville, East Liverpool and St. Clair Township.

Following the party, firemen and Auxiliary members cleaned the hall. The regular firemen's meeting will be held tonight at 7:30.

Our Finest Tradition

The manner in which the Dawson Funeral Home serves East Liverpool area families, goes far beyond the application of technical skills. The service we provide is only part of the story. The responsibility we assume is equally important.

Assisting families through an emergency calls for dedication to serving individual needs and desires. It is a matter of relieving others of responsibilities and worry by anticipating family needs and wishes throughout the entire funeral experience. It costs no more at Dawson's.

Families who have observed our dedication to service and responsibility . . . frequently far beyond expectations . . . recommend us with confidence. We hope you will, too.

Highest Award For Heroism

Pennsylvania Lieutenant Receives Medal Of Honor

WASHINGTON (AP) -- Army Lt. Walter J. Marm Jr., whose family had wondered what kind of soldier he would make, receives the nation's highest award for heroism today.

Sixteen relatives and members of Marm's family were to be present today when Secretary of the Army Stanley R. Resor presents him the Medal of Honor for courage during the battle of Ia Drang in November 1965.

Marm, 25, of Washington, Pa., is credited with killing 18 North Vietnamese soldiers firing on his platoon at the foot of Chu Pong Mountain. He was wounded in the battle.

"To tell you the truth, I didn't know what kind of soldier Joey would be," Marm's father, Walter J. Marm Sr., said when President Johnson signed the citation last Nov. 16.

"He'd never been in a fight in his life," said the retired Pennsylvania state policeman. "I never knew him to be mad at anybody.

The day of the battle, Marm's platoon had joined a battalion assault into an elephant grass-cluttered field near the Ia Drang River. As they advanced to their position, they came onto a clearing and suddenly were blasted by mortar shells.

One machine gun was firing from the side of a big anthill 50 yards in front of the platoon.

"The first thing I did," Marm recalled last month, "was fire a rocket launcher at the bunker. Then I took two grenades and an M16 rifle and went straight up.

"The enemy kept firing back and I told my men to hold their fire and kept advancing until I got close to the bunker.

"I pulled the pin of a grenade and just lobbed it over. After it went off I went around to the left, saw some movements and fired. I fired six times, but didn't know then how many there were. They told me there were 18, but I didn't know."

'Community' Sing Planned At Salineville

The Salineville Ministerial Association, with the Rev. Monte May president, will sponsor an outdoor Community carol sing Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. on the Citizens Banking Company's parking lot next to the community Christmas tree.

The public is invited regardless of age or church affiliation, Rev. May said. The event will mark the first year for this type of program and is being considered as an annual event.

The bank will provide free doughnuts, hot chocolate and coffee following the caroling.

Masonic Groups Will Hold Party

A combined Christmas party for Wellsville Masonic organizations will be held Tuesday night in the temple.

Members and their wives of Lodge 180 F. & A. M., Chapter 55 Royal Arch Masons, Chapter 417 Order of Eastern Star and White Shrine of Jerusalem 21 and their children will attend the affair, which will begin with a coverdish dinner at 6 o'clock. Members are to bring a coverdish and own table service.

There will be a Christmas program, a film, Santa Claus, singing and dancing acts and a gift exchange.

Parents are to provide a gift for each child they bring and a gift for themselves.

Appointment Of Clerk Scheduled On Jan. 10

Clerk Henry Dawes has resigned the $3,000-a-year post, effective Dec. 31. He is retiring.

Supt. Joe Driscoll said the board took no action Saturday, but will make an appointment at the reorganization meeting Jan. 10.

Will Entertain GIs

Bob Hope's 'Task Force' Set To 'Invade' Vietnam

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — The GIs in Vietnam are getting ready for a Christmas invasion, and some of it should be fun.

Bob Hope commands the largest task force of invaders, but the bare legs and jokes of his troupe will share the spotlight with Billy Graham, Francis Cardinal Spellman and several congressmen.

Evangelist Graham and the Roman Catholic archbishop of New York both have scheduled trips to military installations and will conduct some religious services.

Hope left Los Angeles Friday with his 69-member fun company for his 15th annual Christmas tour and his 25th journey to entertain American servicemen.

Hope's troupe also includes Phyllis Diller, Joey Heatherton, Anita Bryant, Les Brown and his band, and the Korean Kittens. They will perform in Vietnam, Guam, Thailand and the Philippines.

Gen. Earle Johnson, U.S. Army chief of staff, also will be in Vietnam this week. But the average soldier will be a lot more interested in Chris Noel, a 26-year-old disc jockey who is in Saigon to attract attention for her program. Her 36-24-36 dimensions, mini-skirt eight inches above the knee, green eyes and blonde hair attracted considerable attention on the street Sunday. She will be on the armed forces radio all this week.

Author John Steinbeck also is visiting with troops and four members of Congress are expected to remain for the holidays — Sen. Stuart Symington, D-Mo., and Reps. Joseph Y. Resnick, D-N.Y., George W. Grider, D-Tenn., and Lera Thomas, D-Tex.

Although both sides have proclaimed 48-hour cease- fires for Christmas and New Year's, some of the GIs will miss the visiting VIP's because they will be on watch-posts with eyes peeled for an unwanted Viet Cong visitor.

Humphrey Says He And LBJ Vow To Win 'Poverty War'

NEW YORK (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey said today he and President Johnson remain committed without reservation "to winning the war against poverty (and) against ignorance."

"There will be disappointments and even failures as we move ahead toward our goal. But we stand committed," he said in remarks prepared for a ground-breaking ceremony for Pace College's $12-million campus center in lower Manhattan.

Noting recent critical studies of Project Head Start — the educational program for disadvantaged preschool children — he said the studies "substantiated what we have sensed all along:

"That what is gained (in the program) can be lost in a short period of time if the necessary follow-through is not assured, if the Head Start youngster moves into an indifferent school system that deadens the barely kindled spark in his mind.

"We have learned that Head Start has been no more than a false start for far too many young children for whom we held high hope. Does that mean we should abandon Project Head Start?"

The vice president suggested the solution lies instead in application of Head Start's "high standards and innovations into the first few grades of elementary school — a teacher for every 15 students, for example."

He said Harold Howe, federal commissioner of education, "intends to see that proposals for innovations and new programs at the elementary level are given rapid and favorable consideration in the year ahead."

3 Youths Killed During Scuffle

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — Police said a scuffle early Sunday ended in the fatal shooting of three 17-year-old high school pupils. A fourth pupil was critically wounded.

Maj. F. J. Vasal said Richard Otis, 21, of Eureka, Mo., was charged by the prosecuting attorney's office with three counts of second-degree murder. Two brothers, aged 14 and 15, were held by juvenile authorities pending further investigation.

Vasel said the victims, each shot once with a .25 caliber automatic pistol, were Michael Tinsley, Joseph Michaels, and Gary Ratliff. Steve Schroeder, 16, is hospitalized with a bullet lodged in his liver, police said. The youths attended Roosevelt High School in St. Louis.

The shooting occurred during a party at a remote clubhouse near the Meramec River in South St. Louis County. Vasel said there was evidence that the youths at the party had been drinking beer.

Pilot Error Blamed In Fatal Plane Crash

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pilot error was blamed in a federal aviation agency report today for a plane crash at North Jackson, Ohio, in which a student pilot was killed.

Harold M. Jones Jr., 36, of North Jackson, Mahoning County, died in the crash last May 25 at the Executive Airport in North Jackson while attempting to land his single engine plane.

The FAA report listed as the probable cause "the pilot misjudged level off and made improper recovery from the resulting bounced landing."

$3 Million Yearly In Cleveland

Juvenile Court System Seen As Laughing Matter

CLEVELAND (AP)—Taxpayers here are spending $3 million a year to maintain a juvenile court system that has become a laughing matter for area delinquents.

Statewide taxpayers contribute $20 million a year to maintain the Ohio Youth Commission, which, according to U. S. District Judge Don J. Young of Toledo, is operating "the largest system of concentration camps for children in the world."

Cuyahoga County Juvenile Court judges have no place to send troubled youngsters except to the Youth Commission. Local juvenile delinquents know their chances for probation are nine out of 10. And probation contacts average about 36 minutes a month.

If sent to the Youth Commission, youngsters know they will be back home as long as they stay out of trouble while they are there.

If taxpayers already are spending $23 million a year and the results are almost entirely negative, what happens now? Experts in the field say:

"Increase the $20 million the state is spending annually to $36 million and then, to meet anticipated needs for the rehabilitative efforts by 1970, provide another $30.8 million in a capital improvement program."

There is little likelihood that this will happen. If not, Judge Young, who served as a juvenile court judge in Huron County 12 years before being appointed to the federal bench 18 months ago, said:

"For lack of resources, the juvenile courts in Ohio are continuously forced to condemn many of the children who come before them to the doom of an almost certain criminal career."

To do any good at all, juvenile court judges feel that a youngster committed to a state institution should be kept a year, if the institution has a staff capable of helping him.

"Every juvenile court judge of any experience can give numerous examples of a boy returned home after too short a stay in one of our institutions who, when he comes into court again is with one or two or more boys who are first offenders," Judge Young said.

In describing Ohio as being a stingy state in spending money for the rehabilitation of its troubled youth, Judge Young said that citizens were being deceived if they thought money was being saved.

"It has been estimated that Ohio's crime bill runs around $2 billion a year," he said. "Each of us must pay his share.

"The persons whose insurance premiums are increased a little does not notice this too much, but the person whose home is robbed, or whose car is stolen or wrecked, begins to feel the pinch.

"The family whose daughter is assaulted on the street, or whose father is killed by an armed robber, really feels the payment it is making.

"It is senseless to say we cannot afford a real program of treatment for children in trouble. By not doing so, we are shutting ourselves off from the only real method there is to reduce the mounting toll of money and agony taken by crime and delinquency.

"The harsh reality is that we cannot protect ourselves by such simple methods of getting tough with young offenders, unless we go back to methods used two or three hundred years ago when even petty thieves were hung in bunches.

War Casts Pall Over Session

Black African Problems Dominated Current U.N.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Problems of black Africa dominated this year's sessions of the General Assembly, now in its final hours, but the continuing war in Vietnam cast a pall over the session.

Apprehension over the future in Southeast Asia was offset somewhat by signs of a thaw in relations between the United States and the Soviet Union and by their attempts to reach a measure of agreement on disarmament.

The mounting clamor for world peace resulted in a ringing vote of confidence for U Thant and a move to broaden the role of the secretary-general in dealing with the formidable obstacles blocking the path to international understanding.

As the session opened, the 38-nation African group cut in on the traditional policy debate to protest the World Court's refusal to rule on the merits of the South-West Africa case.

For four weeks, the assembly hall echoed with charges that the white supremacist government of South Africa had violated its mandate over South-West Africa by introducing race segregation there.

In an unprecedented act of reprisal, the Africans mustered enough votes in the assembly's Budgetary Committee to deny the World Court a supplementary appropriation of $72,500 to meet expenses of the South-West Africa case.

After bringing South Africa's policies under blistering attack in separate committee debates on trusteeship, racial discrimination and apartheid or race segregation, the group turned its attention to Portugal and Rhodesia.

The Africans put through a resolution posing the threat of British force against the rebel Rhodesian regime of Prime Minister Ian Smith. The proposal meant little, however, since Britain foreswore military measures.

The Africans then won assembly approval of a demand that Portugal's partners in the Atlantic alliance stop selling arms allegedly used to control Lisbon's African territories. Most of the NATO nations voted against it.

While the Africans dominated the debates, attention was diverted by an act of U.S.-Soviet cooperation that could have a far-reaching effect on the disarmament issue.

The two superpowers agreed on a treaty that would prevent military exploitation of the moon and other celestial bodies and would ban weapons of mass destruction from outer space.

During the session, Soviet-bloc speakers echoed the old cold-war phrases, and the United States answered in kind. But both sides appeared in some cases to be acting more from practice than from conviction.

Toward the end of the session, U Thant finally announced the decision most delegates had anticipated—to stay on as secretary-general for another five-year term.

The United States won its perennial battle to bar Red China from the United Nations by a margin 11 votes higher than the tally the previous year. There was a move among members to seat both Chinas in the world forum, despite insistence by both regimes that they would accept no such formula.

'Titanic Effort' Urged To Solve U.S.-Soviet Rift

NEW YORK (AP) — Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., has called for "the most titanic effort" to solve U.S.-Soviet differences because of what he sees as "the new spirit of relaxation between ourselves and the Soviet Union."

The Soviet Union has decisively beaten Communist China for leadership of the Communist nations and this has led to the new spirit, Javits said Sunday.

He said he had information that the Soviet Union is "ready to do business with the United States in every area." He did not say where he got the information.

The Middle East is the "No. 1 tinderbox of the world" and Arab-Israel hostility should be the leading item of discussion between the Soviet Union and th United States, Javits also told the American Israel Public Affairs Committee.

40 Spaniards Killed In Collision Of Trains

TERUEL, Spain (AP) — About 40 Spaniards were killed and 12 hurt when a two-car passenger local train collided with a freight train in fog Sunday, provincial officials estimated today.

Many who had crowded into the passenger train's front car, where the motor was located and the heating was better, were crushed and burned. Six railway employes in the second car were not hurt.

Railroad officials said the collision occurred because fog obscured signals.

Variety Program Presented At Sweet Adelines Meeting

A variety program was presented during the annual Christmas family party of Sweet Adelines, Inc., Friday night. Seventy attended at the Potters Savings and Loan Co. annex.

Ronnie Berresford of East Palestine accompanied himself on the piano in a musical recitation of "All I Want For Christmas Is My Two Front Teeth" and "Twas The Night Before Christmas." He also played a medley of popular selections and carols.

A children's trio, Diane Perkins and Lois and Lisa Popejoy, sang "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer."

Mrs. Faye Wright presented two readings, "Just Before Christmas" and "Keep Christ In Christmas." Mrs. Marjorie Stover sang "Twas the Birthday of the King," accompanied by Miss Norma Jones, who also played for group caroling.

The chorus sang "O Holy Night," "Jingle Bell Rock" and "Night Before Christmas" under the direction of Miss Jones.

Mrs. Ruth Rinehart, president, served as mistress of ceremonies and announced the chorus will sing Jan. 12 in Lisbon. Those planning to attend are to notify Miss Jennie Jones.

Edward Edgar, as Santa Claus, presented gifts to the children and conducted the gift exchange among the adults.

Gifts were presented Mrs. Nancy Beaver, director, and Miss Jones, assistant.

Refreshments were served at a buffet table decorated in a holiday theme. Mrs. Wright, chairman, was assisted by Miss Karen Jones, Miss Jennie Jones, Mrs. Peggy Woodward, Mrs. Hilda Edgar, Mrs. Lois Richey and Mrs. Mary Tarbuck.

Brezhnev Receives Highest Soviet Praise Since Mr. K

MOSCOW (AP) — Leonid I Brezhnev received praise and honors today given no Soviet leader since the fall of Nikita Khrushchev 26 months ago.

The Kremlin's emphasis on collective leadership since the fall of Khrushchev was dropped for Brezhnev's 60th birthday today. The general secretary of the Soviet Communist party was accorded honors far exceeding those usual even for a top official.

All papers also carried a glowing tribute to Brezhnev signed by the party's ruling Central Committee, the government Council of Ministers and the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet.

They also published the text of the decree awarding Brezhnev the country's highest honor, the title Hero of the Soviet Union, which carries with it the Order of Lenin and a gold star medal.

Brezhnev's portrait was shown on television for five minutes Sunday night as the announcement of the award and a congratulatory message were read. This was unprecedented in the post-Khrushchev era.

The present Soviet command has stressed collective rule in contrast to the personality cults of Khrushchev and Stalin. In recent weeks, however, Brezhnev has been singled out as the top man with praise in speeches by other leaders.

The party chief has always been the top man in the Soviet Union since the party gives orders to the government.

Variety Program Presented At Sweet Adelines Meeting

A variety program was presented during the annual Christmas family party of Sweet Adelines, Inc., Friday night. Seventy attended at the Potters Savings and Loan Co. annex.

Ronnie Berresford of East Palestine accompanied himself on the piano in a musical recitation of "All I Want For Christmas Is My Two Front Teeth" and "Twas The Night Before Christmas." He also played a medley of popular selections and carols.

A children's trio, Diane Perkins and Lois and Lisa Popejoy, sang "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer."

Mrs. Faye Wright presented two readings, "Just Before Christmas" and "Keep Christ In Christmas." Mrs. Marjorie Stover sang "Twas the Birthday of the King," accompanied by Miss Norma Jones, who also played for group caroling.

The chorus sang "O Holy Night," "Jingle Bell Rock" and "Night Before Christmas" under the direction of Miss Jones.

Mrs. Ruth Rinehart, president, served as mistress of ceremonies and announced the chorus will sing Jan. 12 in Lisbon. Those planning to attend are to notify Miss Jennie Jones.

Edward Edgar, as Santa Claus, presented gifts to the children and conducted the gift exchange among the adults.

Gifts were presented Mrs. Nancy Beaver, director, and Miss Jones, assistant.

Refreshments were served at a buffet table decorated in a holiday theme. Mrs. Wright, chairman, was assisted by Miss Karen Jones, Miss Jennie Jones, Mrs. Peggy Woodward, Mrs. Hilda Edgar, Mrs. Lois Richey and Mrs. Mary Tarbuck.

Brezhnev Receives Highest Soviet Praise Since Mr. K

MOSCOW (AP) — Leonid I Brezhnev received praise and honors today given no Soviet leader since the fall of Nikita Khrushchev 26 months ago.

The Kremlin's emphasis on collective leadership since the fall of Khrushchev was dropped for Brezhnev's 60th birthday today. The general secretary of the Soviet Communist party was accorded honors far exceeding those usual even for a top official.

All papers also carried a glowing tribute to Brezhnev signed by the party's ruling Central Committee, the government Council of Ministers and the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet.

They also published the text of the decree awarding Brezhnev the country's highest honor, the title Hero of the Soviet Union, which carries with it the Order of Lenin and a gold star medal.

Brezhnev's portrait was shown on television for five minutes Sunday night as the announcement of the award and a congratulatory message were read. This was unprecedented in the post-Khrushchev era.

The present Soviet command has stressed collective rule in contrast to the personality cults of Khrushchev and Stalin. In recent weeks, however, Brezhnev has been singled out as the top man with praise in speeches by other leaders.

The party chief has always been the top man in the Soviet Union since the party gives orders to the government.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: Almost all shift dresses come with a little sash to be used as a belt.

Instead of a belt, I prefer to use the sash for a headband, by just cutting it down to the correct size.

JOAN CALHOUN.

Now, Joan's idea is what I call "turning on the light."

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: For those car windows that fog up, roll the windows down, then up again and if the felt fits correctly on the car window it will clean the fog from inside the window, thus giving clear vision.

Try it and see.

BURT H.

LETTER OF LAUGHTER

DEAR HELOISE: I really sparked up some Heloise ingenuity recently and decided to use my grater to scrape burned toast.

It is easy, quick and no crumbs fly.

C.E.P.

DEAR HELOISE: Ever get tired of children's constant questions such as: "How long before my birthday?" . . . or "How many days until Christmas?"

AVID READER.

DEAR HELOISE: I use a small, new powder puff for greasing pots and pans. I keep it in the shortening can ready for use anytime.

MRS. DORIS HUPPERT.

Thanks pal.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Any old-fashioned frock with unpressed pleats—which is still good but too dowdy to wear—will make a fashionable hostess skirt.

When cut from the bodice and loose threads, picked out, it will then become two straight lengths.

Taper these slightly, allowing eight to 10 inches more than waist measurement and sew to the old belt, making a couple of tucks on either side of the center front and back.

MRS. M. McALPINE.

DEAR HELOISE: My husband likes to have a handkerchief handy at night. So when I press his pajamas, I always fold a handkerchief and put it in his pocket.

DEAR HELOISE: Recently I discovered a tasty recipe using leftover eggnog.

M.J.N.

DEAR HELOISE: To the lady who bought small rubber chair caps for her shoe heels.

It's Back To Fiddling After Railroad Career

BUREAU, Ill. (AP) — Violin playing will be a new line again for W. A. Johnston, 66, who retired as a mechanic after 44 years with the Rock Island Railroad.

Soviet Explodes Another A-Test Below Surface

WASHINGTON (AP) — Seismic signals orginating from the central Soviet Union equivalent to a nuclear blast in the low-intermediate range have been recorded by the Atomic Energy Commission, indicating another Soviet underground nuclear test.

The seismology institution at Uppsala, Sweden, however, reported recording a disturbance larger than an Oct. 27 Soviet test blast — which the AEC said at that time was the largest underground test yet.

An AEC spokesman, questioned about the conflicting reports, said the AEC was certain Sunday's disturbance was in the low to intermediate force range. The spokesman said that means an equivalent of 20,000 tons of TNT.

The AEC had put the Oct. 27 blast at near one million tons of TNT. The United States says that none of its underground tests in Nevada have been of more than half the force of the big Soviet shot.

President Truman set up the White House's first and only horseshoe court. President Eisenhower's putting green still reminds visitors that he once practiced golf there.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: Almost all shift dresses come with a little sash to be used as a belt.

Instead of a belt, I prefer to use the sash for a headband, by just cutting it down to the correct size.

JOAN CALHOUN.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: For those car windows that fog up, roll the windows down, then up again and if the felt fits correctly on the car window it will clean the fog from inside the window, thus giving clear vision.

Try it and see.

BURT H.

LETTER OF LAUGHTER

DEAR HELOISE: I really sparked up some Heloise ingenuity recently and decided to use my grater to scrape burned toast.

It is easy, quick and no crumbs fly.

C.E.P.

DEAR HELOISE: Ever get tired of children's constant questions such as: "How long before my birthday?" . . . or "How many days until Christmas?"

AVID READER.

DEAR HELOISE: I use a small, new powder puff for greasing pots and pans. I keep it in the shortening can ready for use anytime.

MRS. DORIS HUPPERT.

I tried the hint and it's the easiest way to grease a muffin tin I ever saw.

Thanks pal.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Any old-fashioned frock with unpressed pleats—which is still good but too dowdy to wear—will make a fashionable hostess skirt.

When cut from the bodice and loose threads, picked out, it will then become two straight lengths.

Taper these slightly, allowing eight to 10 inches more than waist measurement and sew to the old belt, making a couple of tucks on either side of the center front and back.

MRS. M. McALPINE.

DEAR HELOISE: My husband likes to have a handkerchief handy at night. So when I press his pajamas, I always fold a handkerchief and put it in his pocket.

H.L.B.

DEAR HELOISE: Recently I discovered a tasty recipe using leftover eggnog.

When making your favorite sugar cookie recipe, use eggnog in place of milk, then sprinkle with a little sugar, cinnamon and nutmeg.

M.J.N.

DEAR HELOISE: To the lady who bought small rubber chair caps for her shoe heels.

In many dime stores you can buy heel caps in black and white and in about four different sizes.

I've been wearing them for several years. They cut down the noise when I walk and protect the leather heels on my shoes.

MRS. W.A.R.

It's Back To Fiddling After Railroad Career

BUREAU, Ill. (AP) — Violin playing will be a new line again for W. A. Johnston, 66, who retired as a mechanic after 44 years with the Rock Island Railroad.

His wife, who is a musician, bought him a $35 bow for his violin so he can take up the hobby where he left off soon after he married.

"She changed things," he said. "She taught me to read music."

Until then, Johnston played "by ear" like his father.

Soviet Explodes Another A-Test Below Surface

WASHINGTON (AP) — Seismic signals orginating from the central Soviet Union equivalent to a nuclear blast in the low-intermediate range have been recorded by the Atomic Energy Commission, indicating another Soviet underground nuclear test.

The seismology institution at Uppsala, Sweden, however, reported recording a disturbance larger than an Oct. 27 Soviet test blast — which the AEC said at that time was the largest underground test yet.

An AEC spokesman, questioned about the conflicting reports, said the AEC was certain Sunday's disturbance was in the low to intermediate force range. The spokesman said that means an equivalent of 20,000 tons of TNT.

The AEC had put the Oct. 27 blast at near one million tons of TNT. The United States says that none of its underground tests in Nevada have been of more than half the force of the big Soviet shot.

President Truman set up the White House's first and only horseshoe court. President Eisenhower's putting green still reminds visitors that he once practiced golf there.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: The letter from "His Wife" to "The Other Woman" had special meaning to me, I'm "The Other Woman."

No, "Dear Wife," your husband was not with me Friday or Saturday night. And since you say he wasn't with you, either, it's fairly obvious that he was with somebody else.

Now I'm asking myself the same questions you probably have asked yourself a hundred times or more: Where did I fail? Did I become too critical or too demanding or too complacent? Was my inability to hold him beyond my control?

Some men need constant bolstering—more than one woman can supply. What better prop for the sagging male ego than a fresh challenge, an exciting new affair?

I hope one day Rover Boy finds what he is looking for. I know now it won't be me. But it won't be you, either.—PORT CHESTER, N.Y.

Fascinated

Dear Ann: I was fascinated by the letter from the wife to "The Other Woman." May I address myself to her, since I'm sure that letter was meant for me.

Dear Wife: Your husband always told me you were dumb and your letter proves it. You figured everything wrong. You made our meetings sound like pure heaven. Well, they are 10 per cent heaven and 90 per cent hell.

Do you know what it's like to sneak around with a married man—not to be able to have dinner in a decent restaurant or go to a movie together or even for a walk in a park? Do you know what it's like to be in love with a man you never will be able to marry and whose children you never will bear?

I know now that my role in his life is that of supporting actress. The wife is always the star. When the final curtain drops, you will be the leading lady and I won't even be listed in the cast of characters.—A WALK-ON.

Dear Ann: Since I have been "The Other Woman" for 10 years I'm qualified to reply to "His Wife."

Dear Martyr: Please don't give your husband a divorce, no matter how hard he begs. (Frankly, I don't think he's been begging very hard.) If you give him a divorce he might feel he must marry me, and I don't want him. My alimony arrangement is beautiful.

Furthermore, I don't trust the bum. It would be a matter of time before he'd be cheating on me as he is now cheating on you.—LA PALOMA.

Probation Officer

Dear Ann: I'm a probation parole officer who has witnessed at close range what goes on with the cheating husband, his "martyred" wife and The Other Woman.

Why do wives hang on, accepting humiliation, punishment and abuse? The answer is clear. They are unbalanced personalities who enjoy it.

Why be "The Other Woman?" This is deliberate choice. She likes the free meals, the gifts, the pleasant company but she does not want to be a wife. It demands too much of her in terms of discipline and commitment.

Building a successful marriage takes work. Being "The Other Woman" is a part-time job, which is all she is willing to tackle.

As for why husbands stray, usually it's because something is missing at home but more often it is because something is missing in the man. He lacks the maturity to stay with one woman. His ego demands more pampering than one female can provide. It's the nature of the beast.—AN OBSERVER.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Man In Building Had That 'Left' Feeling

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — For a short time, John Zimmerman was all alone in a 10-story office building. He didn't like it.

It was 3 a.m. when he left his office, found that the elevator wasn't working and walked down 10 flights of stairs only to find both street floor doors locked.

He didn't have the necessary coins to operate the pay phone in the lobby and said he was starting to get jittery when someone shook a door. It was a merchant policeman who rescued him.

"I wanted crowds of people around me," Zimmerman said, "crowds of people. Everything in town was closed so I went home and woke my wife and kids."

Steel Will Set Output Mark

CLEVELAND (AP) — A new steel production record is assured this year despite a decline in output in recent weeks, Steel Magazine said today.

Last week's output was estimated at 2,355,000 net tons compared with 2,224,000 tons in the corresponding week last year and Steel said that by the end of this week, the year's production will have exceeded the record 131 5 million tons produced in 1965.

The weekly journal of metalworking said that steel inventories at consumers' plants are low in relation to consumption and order backlogs, which makes a strong argument for revival soon in both demand and production.

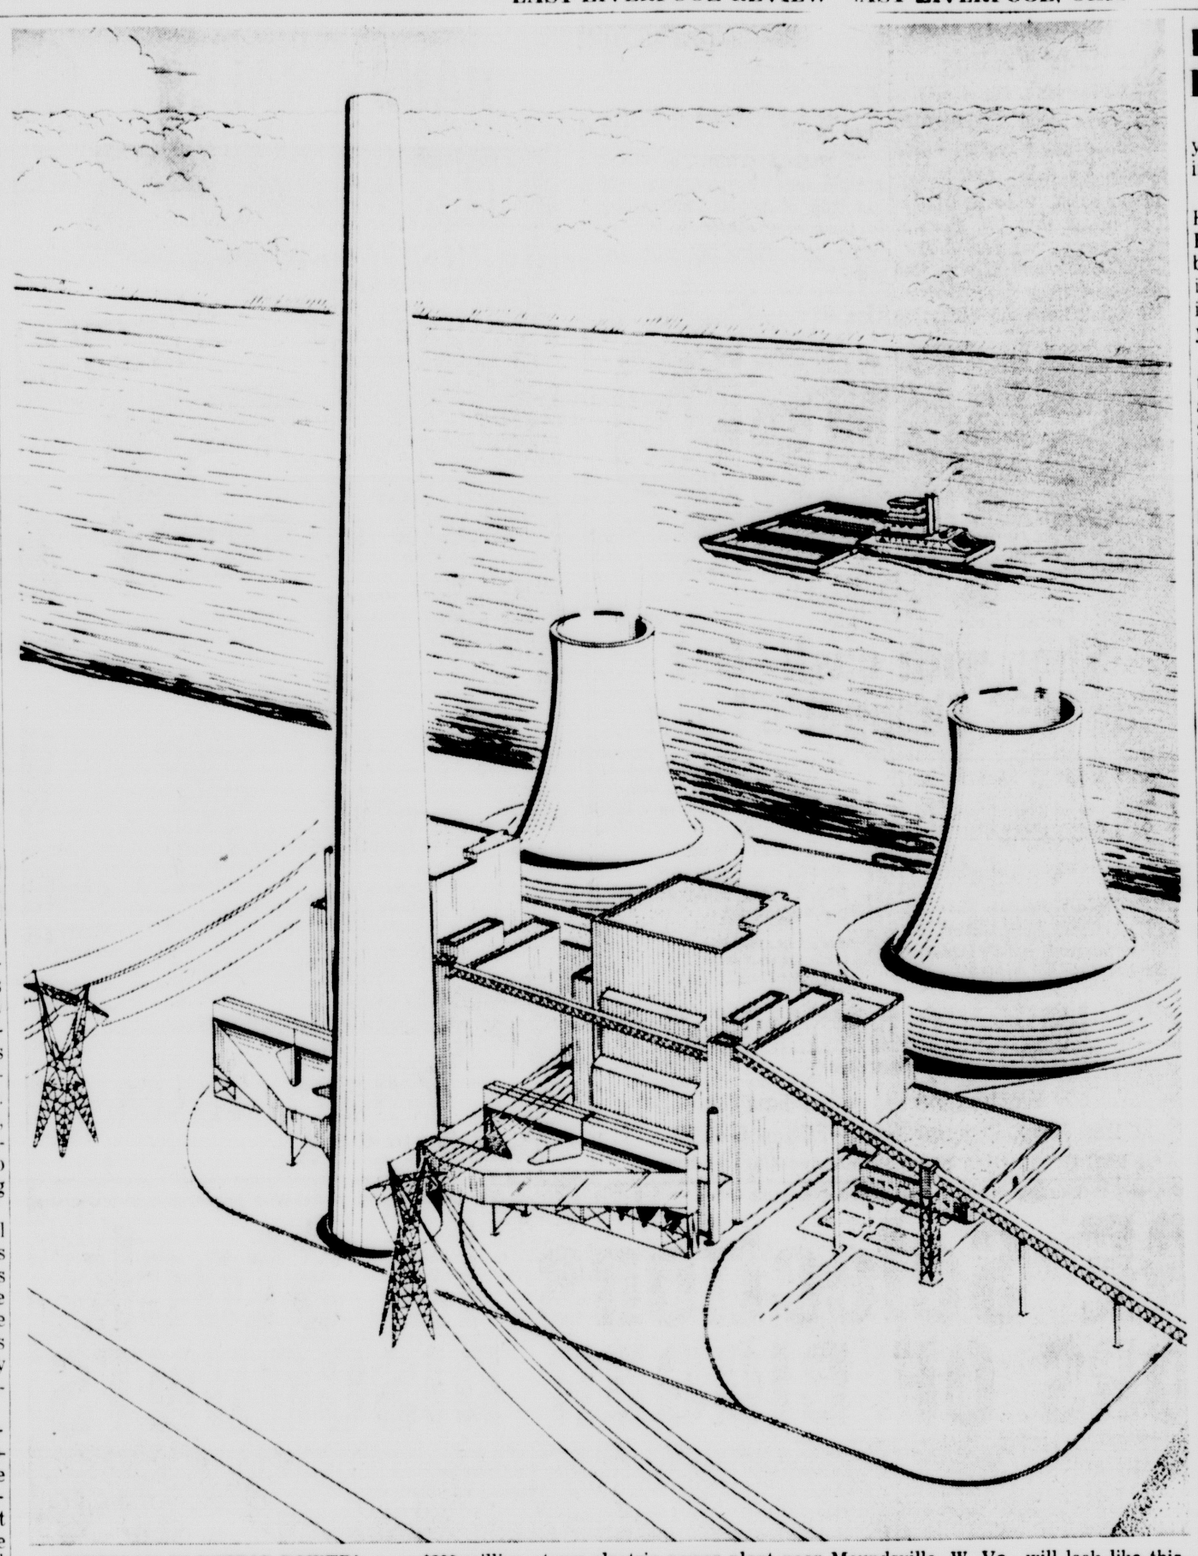
"In relation to consumption, inventories are lower than they were two years ago," Steel said. "Consumption then at manufacturing plants was averaging five million tons a month. Now it is close to six million."

It added that prospects are good for a continued high rate of steel consumption despite the current slowdown in the automobile industry, the No. 1 steel user.

"At the beginning of November, the nation's durable goods industries had a record high backlog of orders: $76,234,000,000." Steel continued. "That's 43 per cent above the $53,406,000,000 backlog two years ago. At current rates of production, the present backlog is equivalent to 3.3 months of output. Two years ago the corresponding figure was only 2.9 months."

As inventories at the steel mills climbed, enabling the mills to give prompt delivery, buyers saw an opportunity to reduce their inventories, the magazine said, pointing out that there is no immediate need for inventory building on the part of consumers.

The magazine said the automobile industry's cutting of production to fit demand is the heaviest depressent to steel demand. It pointed out also that the construction industry, the nation's second largest steel user, is in a seasonal downturn and has trimmed its steel buying accordingly.



AMERICAN ELECTRIC POWER's new $200-million steam-electric power plant near Moundsville, W. Va., will look like this when completed in 1971. Its two 800,000-kilowatt generating units will be served by a single chimney—the world's tallest—the company announcement said.

Baseboard Heat History Reviewed

The baseboard heating that you enjoy in your home has an interesting history.

According to the Plumbing - Heating - Cooling Information Bureau at Chicago, it started as bare pipe in railroad sleeping cars. Gradually, it evolved into the compact, enclosed units you find in Pullman cars today.

The idea of baseboard radiation was received enthusiastically for use in homes and other structures where heating efficiency had to be coupled with economy of space.

Modern hydronic (hot water) baseboard heat is regarded as quality heat because it's even and draft-free. Installed around the perimeter of the room, it takes up virtually no space and in no way intrudes upon a room's decor. Because it delivers heat at a low level, it provides the utmost in comfort.

One of the most attractive features of hydronic heat is that the boiler used to heat the water can be fired by any type of fuel, depending upon what is prevalent and most economical in your area, the bureau points out.

Worn Toy Becomes New Under Proper Painting

Does you child cherish a toy that has become worn? A new coat of paint may be all that's needed to brighten up this toy and turn it into a new treasure.

You can stretch your child's Christmas for many months by simply painting those wagons, tricycles, dollhouses and other playthings that have begun to rust or chip.

Painting is easy and fun—and so much more economical than replacing toys. These tips from the National Paint, Varnish and Lacquer Association will help make your job easier.

First, decide on the type of paint to use for your project. Of course you'll want to choose bright, gay colors, but you must be careful that the coatings you use contain no ingredients that would be harmful if chewed or swallowed by young children.

In fact, if a paint contains even small amounts of lead, antimony, arsenic, cadmium, mercury, selenium or soluble barium, it is not advisable to use it on children's toys. Have a reputable paint dealer check the label of the paint you are purchasing to assure its safety. Quality paints will give best results. And always read the label directions carefully before starting to paint.

You'll want to use brushes of proper sizes for each project. Round and flat sash brushes are often used and small artist brushes are helpful when working on small toys.

If the toy has any cracks, dents, or nail-head identations, you'll need to use some type of filler or spackling compound. You may find that a filler in tube form will be the handiest, since you can squeeze out just the right amount as needed.

Any wooden surfaces should be sanded before painting. Then, go right ahead with the application of your color. Just remember to avoid dipping your brush into the paint more than one - third of its bristle length. Always start on an unpainted area and work toward a painted one when you have just refilled your brush.

When working with metal that has rusted, you can use either coarse sandpaper or steel wool to remove the corrosion. After the rust is removed, be sure to use a special rust - inhibiting primer on the bare metal. For a final coat, use a hard - drying durable enamel.

Handy, easy - to - use cans of aerosol paints may further simplify your task. They also can be used to create new designs by using stencils or to add a gay stripe by spraying over masking tape. Your youngster will be even more pleased with his "new looking" toys if you personalize them by stenciling his name or initials on the top or side.

Steel Will Set Output Mark

CLEVELAND (AP) — A new steel production record is assured this year despite a decline in output in recent weeks, Steel Magazine said today.

Last week's output was estimated at 2,355,000 net tons compared with 2,224,000 tons in the corresponding week last year and Steel said that by the end of this week, the year's production will have exceeded the record 131.5 million tons produced in 1965.

The weekly journal of metalworking said that steel inventories at consumers' plants are low in relation to consumption and order backlogs, which makes a strong argument for revival soon in both demand and production.

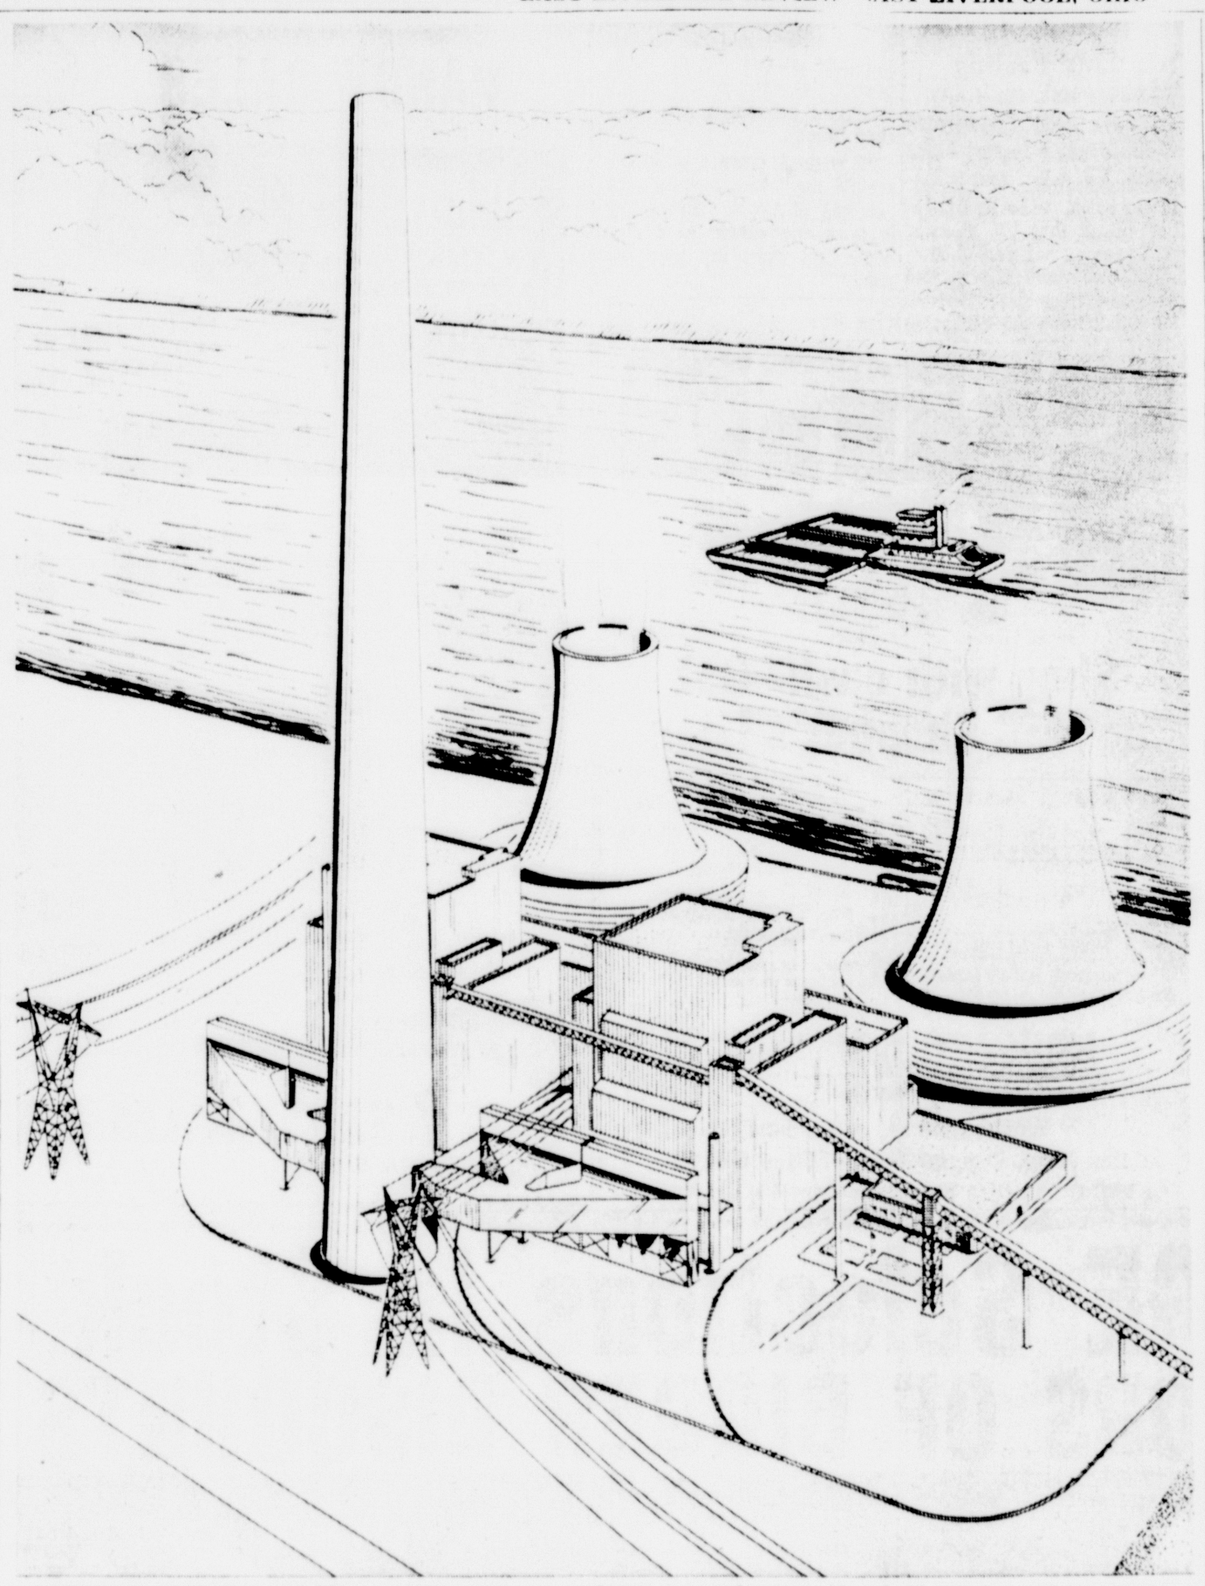
"In relation to consumption, inventories are lower than they were two years ago," Steel said. "Consumption then at manufacturing plants was averaging five million tons a month. Now it is close to six million."

It added that prospects are good for a continued high rate of steel consumption despite the current slowdown in the automobile industry, the No. 1 steel user.

"At the beginning of November, the nation's durable goods industries had a record high backlog of orders: $76,234,000,000," Steel continued. "That's 43 per cent above the $53,406,000,000 backlog two years ago. At current rates of production, the present backlog is equivalent to 3.3 months of output. Two years ago the corresponding figure was only 2.9 months."

As inventories at the steel mills climbed, enabling the mills to give prompt delivery, buyers saw an opportunity to reduce their inventories, the magazine said, pointing out that there is no immediate need for inventory building on the part of consumers.

The magazine said the automobile industry's cutting of production to fit demand is the heaviest depressent to steel demand. It pointed out also that the construction industry, the nation's second largest steel user, is in a seasonal downturn and has trimmed its steel buying accordingly.



AMERICAN ELECTRIC POWER's new $200-million steam-electric power plant near Moundsville, W. Va., will look like this when completed in 1971. Its two 800,000-kilowatt generating units will be served by a single chimney—the world's tallest—the company announcement said.

Santa and the Giant Fighter

By Lucrece Beale

Billy makes friends with the dragon. He says if the dragon helps him to free the moon he can live in Santa Land stumble on the right words to open the moon box.

CHAPTER 13

"It's the magic words!" shouted the dragon. "Your own name has opened the box!"

Billy watched joyfully as the box opened wide and the big yellow moon bulged into the cave.

"How will we get it out?" he wailed. "We are three miles beneath the ground and it would never fit into the Go-Bucket."

HE WAS wheezing because the moon almost filled the cave and there was very little room to breathe. He pointed to a wide staircase leading out of the cave. "Push it up there!" he gasped.

Billy clambered into a corner and pushed and shoved the moon through the opening to the stairs. It was like trying to get a balloon through the eye of a needle. No matter how he pinched and twisted and tilted, edges of the moon kept bulging and swelling back into the cave.

Then the dragon put all his weight behind Billy and, wham, the moon plopped into the staircase. Billy and the dragon squeezed onto the steps behind the moon. The dragon stepped on a button and the staircase started moving.

The dragon thumped his tail up and down. "Now do you think I can live in Santa Land?" he asked.

"I am sure of it," said Billy. "But you must make your way there alone for I am off to slay the wicked giant."

MEANTIME at the giant's castle all was pandemonium. Goko had awakened just in time to see the moon setting beyond the sea. He howled the castle awake. He tramped through the halls bellowing and squalling and smashing furniture.

When the other giants heard him coming they hid under their beds. They locked themselves in closets. They climbed up the chimneys. They cowered under the piano.

Goko was enraged, "Idiots! Bunglers!" he roared.

"Idiots! Bunglers!" he roared. "You have let the moon go free. Now my life is in danger for the Fairy Queen said I would be slain by the light of the moon."

"But, master," quavered a quivering mouse of a giant. "We can catch the moon when it sets again tomorrow!"

"And what of tonight?" screamed Goko. The moon will shine the whole night long!"

"But, sire," sputtered a second trembling giant. "The Fairy Queen said a boy will slay you and there is no boy here!"

"Yes, your majesty," whimpered a twitching giant. "But the Queen said it would be a real live human boy and there's never been such a one in this land."

"True," snarled Goko, "and it will be your job to see there never is. Set guards at every door and window. You will get no food and no sleep until this day and night are over."

The giants nodded dumbly and stumbled away to guard the castle.

College Students Continue March To Protest War

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — A group of college students protesting U.S. military action in Vietnam plan to resume their 50-mile peace march to Cleveland today.

The walk, sponsored by the Ohio Methodist Students Movement is scheduled to end in Cleveland on Christmas Eve with a peace ceremony in that city's Public Square.

"If we were students in North Vietnam," said Cox, "We would be attempting to get the government there to also discontinue fighting and sit down at the conference table. We believe true Christianity could, if given the chance, solve most of the differences of opinion."

Cox, who lives in Avon Lake, said young persons of all faiths are participating, not just Methodists. He said more students would join the march this week.

Dr. Jonas Salk Gets 1966 Truman Award

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Dr. Jonas E. Salk was given the 1966 Harry S. Truman commendation award Sunday night for his aid to humanity through discovery of the Salk polio vaccine.

The award, given by the Bonds for Israel Committee, went previously to Gen. Lucius D. Clay and Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.

Former President Truman, in a letter read at the dinner, expressed hope that another Jonas Salk might soon come forward to free humanity "from the most virulent of all diseases, the disease of war."

Seeking New Agency

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — Regional government may be coming to the San Francisco Bay area. The Association of Bay Area Governments is asking the legislature to create an agency with authorization for taxing, waste disposal, park and recreational needs and regional planning for nine counties and 91 cities. A 34-member executive committee appointed by officials of the participating cities would run the agency.

Bomb Designed To Wreck Plane, Detective Says

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — A homemade bomb that exploded in the terminal building of Lambert-St. Louis Municipal Airport Saturday night probably was designed to destroy an airplane, a St. Louis County detective said Sunday.

"We're pretty certain someone was going to put it on a plane and then chickened out," said detective Hugh Hodges.

More than 1,000 persons were evacuated within 10 minutes and passengers on incoming flights were told to remain aboard their planes.

No one was injured when the device exploded, shattering seven large window panes, destroying a display case and several chairs.

Maj. F. J. Vasel said his detectives and the FBI were told there had been two previous bomb threats at the airport last week.

Lynda Bird Johnson May Visit In Mexico

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Lynda Bird Johnson is considering a pre-Christmas visit to the Mexican resort city of Acapulco, it was learned today.

The 22-year-old daughter of the President and Mrs. Johnson, if she decides to make the trip, would spend a couple of days in Acapulco later this week.

Santa and the Giant Fighter

By Lucrece Beale

Billy makes friends with the dragon. He says if the dragon helps him to free the moon he can live in Santa Land stumble on the right words to open the moon box.

CHAPTER 13

"It's the magic words!" shouted the dragon. "Your own name has opened the box!"

Billy watched joyfully as the box opened wide and the big yellow moon bulged into the cave.

"How will we get it out?" he wailed. "We are three miles beneath the ground and it would never fit into the Go-Bucket."

HE WAS wheezing because the moon almost filled the cave and there was very little room to breathe. He pointed to a wide staircase leading out of the cave. "Push it up there!" he gasped.

Billy clambered into a corner and pushed and shoved the moon through the opening to the stairs. It was like trying to get a balloon through the eye of a needle. No matter how he pinched and twisted and tilted, edges of the moon kept bulging and swelling back into the cave.

Then the dragon put all his weight behind Billy and, wham, the moon plopped into the staircase. Billy and the dragon squeezed onto the steps behind the moon. The dragon stepped on a button and the staircase started moving.

They shot up faster than the Go-Bucket had come down and before Billy could catch his breath they reached the surface.

The moon burst out of the hole and sailed off into the sky.

The dragon thumped his tail up and down. "Now do you think I can live in Santa Land?" he asked.

"I am sure of it," said Billy. "But you must make your way there alone for I am off to slay the wicked giant."

He put on the slippers the Harp Witch had given to Santa, waved goodbye to the happy dragon and strode away.

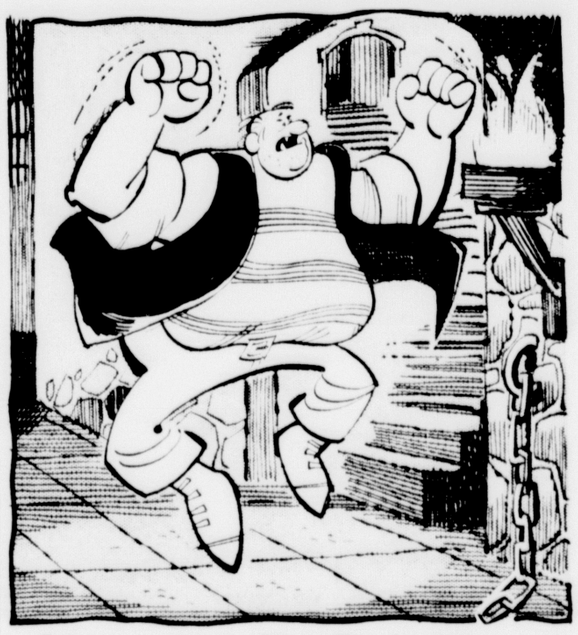
MEANTIME at the giant's castle all was pandemonium. Goko had awakened just in time to see the moon setting beyond the sea. He howled the castle awake. He tramped through the halls bellowing and squalling and smashing furniture.

When the other giants heard him coming they hid under their beds. They locked themselves in closets. They climbed up the chimneys. They cowered under the piano.

It made no difference. Goko found them. He thrashed them with his club and bashed their heads together and threw them down the stairs.



Goko was enraged, "Idiots! Bunglers!" he roared.

They begged him to tell them what caused his displeasure.

"Idiots! Bunglers!" he roared. "You have let the moon go free. Now my life is in danger for the Fairy Queen said I would be slain by the light of the moon."

"But, master," quavered a quivering mouse of a giant. "We can catch the moon when it sets again tomorrow!"

"And what of tonight?" screamed Goko. The moon will shine the whole night long!"

"But, sire," sputtered a second trembling giant. "The Fairy Queen said a boy will slay you and there is no boy here!"

"You are all boys!" shouted Goko. "You are pigeon-hearted, milk-livered pygmies, everyone!"

"Yes, your majesty," whimpered a twitching giant. "But the Queen said it would be a real live human boy and there's never been such a one in this land."

"True," snarled Goko, "and it will be your job to see there never is. Set guards at every door and window. You will get no food and no sleep until this day and night are over."

The giants nodded dumbly and stumbled away to guard the castle.

College Students Continue March To Protest War

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — A group of college students protesting U.S. military action in Vietnam plan to resume their 50-mile peace march to Cleveland today.

The walk, sponsored by the Ohio Methodist Students Movement is scheduled to end in Cleveland on Christmas Eve with a peace ceremony in that city's Public Square.

"If we were students in North Vietnam," said Cox. "We would be attempting to get the government there to also discontinue fighting and sit down at the conference table. We believe true Christianity could, if given the chance, solve most of the differences of opinion."

Cox, who lives in Avon Lake, said young persons of all faiths are participating, not just Methodists. He said more students would join the march this week.

Dr. Jonas Salk Gets 1966 Truman Award

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Dr. Jonas E. Salk was given the 1966 Harry S. Truman commendation award Sunday night for his aid to humanity through discovery of the Salk polio vaccine.

The award, given by the Bonds for Israel Committee, went previously to Gen. Lucius D. Clay and Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.

Former President Truman, in a letter read at the dinner, expressed hope that another Jonas Salk might soon come forward to free humanity "from the most virulent of all diseases, the disease of war."

Seeking New Agency

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — Regional government may be coming to the San Francisco Bay area. The Association of Bay Area Governments is asking the legislature to create an agency with authorization for taxing, waste disposal, park and recreational needs and regional planning for nine counties and 91 cities. A 34-member executive committee appointed by officials of the participating cities would run the agency.

Bomb Designed To Wreck Plane, Detective Says

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — A homemade bomb that exploded in the terminal building of Lambert-St. Louis Municipal Airport Saturday night probably was designed to destroy an airplane, a St. Louis County detective said Sunday.

"We're pretty certain someone was going to put it on a plane and then chickened out," said detective Hugh Hodges.

More than 1,000 persons were evacuated within 10 minutes and passengers on incoming flights were told to remain aboard their planes.

No one was injured when the device exploded, shattering seven large window panes, destroying a display case and several chairs.

Maj. F. J. Vasel said his detectives and the FBI were told there had been two previous bomb threats at the airport last week.

Lynda Bird Johnson May Visit In Mexico

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Lynda Bird Johnson is considering a pre-Christmas visit to the Mexican resort city of Acapulco, it was learned today.

The 22-year-old daughter of the President and Mrs. Johnson, if she decides to make the trip, would spend a couple of days in Acapulco later this week.

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

Another New Act

TV drops a new package of Crosbys into our living rooms on Christmas Eve—the patriarchal Bing, wife Kathryn and the latest sprigs from the family tree, Harry, 8; Mary Frances, 7, and Nathaniel, 5.

Hal Humphrey

They gather together on ABC's "Hollywood Palace" show to sing a medley of Christmas songs and carols and a more heart-warming group you are ne'er likely to see anywhere.

-:-

"MY SON HARRY was on the show with me last Christmas," recalled Bing, while this branch of the Crosby clan was rehearsing for their together debut, "and during the past 11 months he hasn't let anybody forget it."

"You mean there's a bit of ham in the boy?" I inquired.

"Well, to give you an idea, when we got back home his sister started to tell him about playing one of the children in a production of 'Peter Pan' which Kathryn starred in for our community playhouse," said Bing, "and when she reported that 2,500 people had filled the theater, Harry butted in and declared, 'My "Palace" show was seen by 30 million people.' So naturally Mary Frances wasn't very forgiving until I promised her a spot on the "Palace" show this Christmas Eve, and here we are."

"BUT YOU'VE got Nathaniel with you. Did he put up a squawk, too?"

"No, Nathaniel couldn't care less. He's pretty young, but then you never know, so we brought him along anyway. He'll have a solo number in one of the carols."

"Are you in a duet with Bing?" I asked.

"I'm not sure," she answered. "I was thinking of giving Kate Smith some poisoned candy. I know every word of the songs she's singing with Bing. So far, I'm mostly herding children."

"AH, THAT Kate Smith, what a gal!" mused Bing, ignoring the dig from Kathryn about a duet. "She's been singing for 40 years, daily and loud. Amazing. I remember when she made her Broadway debut in 1927 with Eddie Dowling's 'Honeymoon Lane.'

"Another gal in the same show was Delores de Fina, whom you probably know as Delores Hope. Nice gal, too. Then she fell afoul of brother Hope."

"And didn't Bing look wonderful?" concluded Dolores. "I don't know. I couldn't see because I was crying," Kathryn responded.

BING HIMSELF does not concur with these slightly prejudiced opinions of his current vocal ability. He said 10 years ago that his voice was shot and that he was quitting the song biz.

Today he still maintains he should have quit then, but now that he has a new family to egg him on, the chances of Der Vingle's quitting are less and less. When matched with some of the others passing as singers today, he sounds as good as or better than he did a decade ago.

Bing is doing eight "Hollywood Palace" shows for ABC this season and already has signed for another eight next year. In February he is scheduled to tape a show with Dean Martin.

BETWEEN NOW and then he'll also be seen on the New Year's Eve Hollywood Palace show and hosting his annual golf tournament at Peeble Beach, Calif., Jan. 21-22. A week later (Jan. 29) viewers can see Bing the fisherman on ABC's "American Sportsman" show salmon fishing in northern England.

"I did that fishing last summer. Then Kathryn and I went to Dublin, Ireland, and did a variety show for Irish TV. It will be seen there and on the BBC network in England St. Patrick's Day," Bing reported.

"I've been trying to sell it to one of the networks here but have no takers yet. ABC didn't think it was 'fast enough,' whatever that means. I know it would be a hit in South Boston."

I advised Bing to hold on, that if ABC's "second season" premiering in January isn't any better than its first season, he'll not only sell the Irish show to them, but for twice the first to him, had been guilty of personal indignities toward him and, generally, refused to honor her duties as a wife.

You And The Law

Could Mary prevent John from obtaining a divorce be- to grant you a divorce when it will violate my religious rights to let you have it."

John sued for divorce, saying that Mary was indifferent

Mary was a member of a church which did not sanction divorces. At the time John married her, he joined her church and agreed in writing to raise any child they might have in her faith.

After several years of marriage, John quit attending church and announced that he did not care whether their first child was raised in her faith. Scornfully, Mary began neglecting some of her routine, wifely duties such as cooking for the family, cleaning the house. She even stopped speaking to her husband.

Mary refused, and told him. "You will never be able to get a divorce because I won't agree to it. No court is going cause her religious views would be violated by such action?

NO, GENERALLY, the fact that a person is a member of a religious faith which does not approve of divorce cannot prevent the spouse (either husband or wife) from obtaining a divorce.

If, in this case, Mary could show that the breakup of the marriage was caused by some other reason — such as John's infatuation with another woman — then the divorce might not be granted. But Mary's refusal to honor marriage vows would weigh heavily against her.

Lieutenant Governor Of Mississippi Dies

LAUREL, Miss. (AP) — Carroll Gartin, lieutenant governor of Mississippi, died this morning after being admitted to a hospital with a heart ailment.

Gartin, 53, was taken to Jones County Community Hospital at 10 p.m. Sunday. He died at 3 a.m. today.

A candidate in the 1967 governor's race, Gartin was serving his third term as lieutenant governor. He had held the office from 1952 to 1960 and from 1964 until his death.

He lost a bid for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination to Ross Barnett in 1959. Gartin was chairman of the Mississippi Democratic Convention in 1956 and again in 1964.

The White House stables — part of the establishment since President Jefferson's day — gave way to an automobile garage in William Howard Taft's time.

"Doris, not only are you spending too much, but you're not doing enough nagging about MY spending."

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

Another New Act

TV drops a new package of Crosbys into our living rooms on Christmas Eve—the patriarchal Bing, wife Kathryn and the latest sprigs from the family tree, Harry, 8; Mary Frances, 7, and Nathaniel, 5.

Hal Humphrey

They gather together on ABC's "Hollywood Palace" show to sing a medley of Christmas songs and carols and a more heart-warming group you are ne'er likely to see anywhere.

—:—

"MY SON HARRY was on the show with me last Christmas," recalled Bing, while this branch of the Crosby clan was rehearsing for their together debut, "and during the past 11 months he hasn't let anybody forget it."

"You mean there's a bit of ham in the boy?" I inquired.

"Well, to give you an idea, when we got back home his sister started to tell him about playing one of the children in a production of 'Peter Pan' which Kathryn starred in for our community playhouse," said Bing, "and when she reported that 2,500 people had filled the theater, Harry butted in and declared, 'My "Palace" show was seen by 30 million people.' So naturally Mary Frances wasn't very forgiving until I promised her a spot on the "Palace" show this Christmas Eve, and here we are."

"BUT YOU'VE got Nathaniel with you. Did he put up a squawk, too?"

"No, Nathaniel couldn't care less. He's pretty young, but then you never know, so we brought him along anyway. He'll have a solo number in one of the carols."

Kathryn came by Bing's dressing room to model for him one of the gowns she was to wear, and Bing gave her a low, warm "HMMnnnn."

"Are you in a duet with Bing?" I asked.

"I'm not sure," she answered. "I was thinking of giving Kate Smith some poisoned candy. I know every word of the songs she's singing with Bing. So far, I'm mostly herding children."

"AH, THAT Kate Smith, what a gal!" mused Bing, ignoring the dig from Kathryn about a duet. "She's been singing for 40 years, daily and loud. Amazing. I remember when she made her Broadway debut in 1927 with Eddie Dowling's 'Honeymoon Lane.'

"Another gal in the same show was Delores de Fina, whom you probably know as Delores Hope. Nice gal, too. Then she fell afoul of brother Hope."

"And didn't Bing look wonderful?" concluded Dolores. "I don't know. I couldn't see because I was crying," Kathryn responded.

BING HIMSELF does not concur with these slightly prejudiced opinions of his current vocal ability. He said 10 years ago that his voice was shot and that he was quitting the song biz.

Today he still maintains he should have quit then, but now that he has a new family to egg him on, the chances of Der Vingle's quitting are less and less. When matched with some of the others passing as singers today, he sounds as good as or better than he did a decade ago.

Bing is doing eight "Hollywood Palace" shows for ABC this season and already has signed for another eight next year. In February he is scheduled to tape a show with Dean Martin.

BETWEEN NOW and then he'll also be seen on the New Year's Eve Hollywood Palace show and hosting his annual golf tournament at Peeble Beach, Calif., Jan. 21-22. A week later (Jan. 29) viewers can see Bing the fisherman on ABC's "American Sportsman" show salmon fishing in northern England.

"I did that fishing last summer. Then Kathryn and I went to Dublin, Ireland, and did a variety show for Irish TV. It will be seen there and on the BBC network in England St. Patrick's Day," Bing reported.

"I've been trying to sell it to one of the networks here but have no takers yet. ABC didn't think it was 'fast enough,' whatever that means. I know it would be a hit in South Boston."

I advised Bing to hold on, that if ABC's "second season" premiering in January isn't any better than its first season, he'll not only sell the Irish show to them, but for twice the first to him, had been guilty of personal indignities toward him and, generally, refused to honor her duties as a wife.

You And The Law

Could Mary prevent John from obtaining a divorce be to grant you a divorce when it will violate my religious rights to let you have it."

John sued for divorce, saying that Mary was indifferent.

Mary was a member of a church which did not sanction divorces. At the time John married her, he joined her church and agreed in writing to raise any child they might have in her faith.

After several years of marriage, John quit attending church and announced that he did not care whether their first child was raised in her faith. Scornfully, Mary began neglecting some of her routine, wifely duties such as cooking for the family, cleaning the house. She even stopped speaking to her husband.

Mary refused, and told him, "You will never be able to get a divorce because I won't agree to it. No court is going to make me."

John moved out anyway, and sued for divorce, charging that Mary had been guilty of mental cruelty because her religious views would be violated by such action?

NO, GENERALLY, the fact that a person is a member of a religious faith which does not approve of divorce cannot prevent the spouse (either husband or wife) from obtaining a divorce.

If, in this case, Mary could show that the breakup of the marriage was caused by some other reason — such as John's infatuation with another woman — then the divorce might not be granted. But Mary's refusal to honor marriage vows would weigh heavily against her.

Lieutenant Governor Of Mississippi Dies

LAUREL, Miss. (AP) — Carroll Gartin, lieutenant governor of Mississippi, died this morning after being admitted to a hospital with a heart ailment.

Gartin, 53, was taken to Jones County Community Hospital at 10 p.m. Sunday. He died at 3 a.m. today.

A candidate in the 1967 governor's race, Gartin was serving his third term as lieutenant governor. He had held the office from 1952 to 1960 and from 1964 until his death.

He lost a bid for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination to Ross Barnett in 1959. Gartin was chairman of the Mississippi Democratic Convention in 1956 and again in 1964.

The White House stables — part of the establishment since President Jefferson's day — gave way to an automobile garage in William Howard Taft's time.

Junior Editors Quiz on SEEING EYE DOGS

QUESTION:: If dogs are color blind, how can a seeing-eye dog understand traffic signals?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: It seems remarkable that an animal could be trained to guide a blind person through busy city streets. Seeing-eye dogs, which are mostly of the German Shepherd breed, have special training centers where they learn to obey their blind owners and to watch out constantly for their welfare. They act, literally, as their master's eyes. Such dogs wear a harness with a hoop extending to their master's hand. The master is guided by the pressure the dog makes against the harness, which he can feel through the hoop. The dogs do not watch traffic signals to know when to cross streets. They watch the flow of the traffic and are intelligent enough to know when it is safe to conduct the master across. Such a dog will stop when he reaches a curbstone and will wait for his master to find out its height and give the command to go ahead. The dog will determine how to get around any barriers in the way. A great attachment grows between the dog and his master, whose life becomes enriched because of the presence of such a devoted and faithful friend.

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: We do not have to be blind to enjoy the devotion of our domestic animals. Be kind to them. They will show you how much they appreciate it.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Homemaker Feels Defeated

A homemaker on the sunny side of 35, who is 50 pounds overweight, feels unable to gather her forces and get her life on the beam. Here is the essence of a 10-page letter.

Ida Jean Kain

"I need help, I need it fast and I need it desperately. I am thoroughly disgusted with myself. I am grossly overweight, tired all the time, snappy, unstable and unhappy.

"I no longer like to go anywhere, especially to any place that requires dressing up because that means a girdle and that is murder. With children in school and the high cost of living, I cannot afford to buy clothes for myself. I have clothes in smaller sizes — 12, 14, 16. But I wear size 24. I keep the clothes, hoping to wear them again. They are all classics and have not gone out of style. But I never have gotten back into a dress that I set aside. If I don't stop gaining, I don't know where I'll wind up. I am 5' 6" tall and weigh 186 pounds.

"Our menus consist of meat, milk and bread. We cannot have vegetables more than twice a month. I think if I didn't have to use up so much energy dragging this big, hulking self around every day I would be a better wife and mother and have enough energy to sit down and budget my money, learn to be a better cook and manager. Please help me, Ida Jean. If I don't mail this quickly, I'll never send it. I put up a happy and contented front, but it is beginning to wear on me."

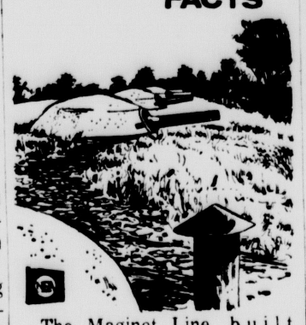
WHERE TO start? Start with that final sentence. Stop burying your true feelings, for then you turn inward upon yourself. You have to do something about the source of your problem. To begin with, you are on a frightfully deficient diet. No wonder you drag around.

Sit down and have a straightforward talk with your husband. As you say, you do have a good husband. But you cannot expect him to understand and make needed changes to help you unless you tell him honestly how you feel. Stop making believe you are happy under existing conditions, for that leads to confusion within yourself.

Until the underlying factors that sap your energy are changed, you will go on feeling defeated. Do not downgrade yourself. You are a good wife and a loving mother. You need to learn to be a better cook and manager, but until you respect yourself as the admirable person you are, you will not think you can succeed.

A change in your attitude will give you a better perspective. You'll have new hope and fresh energy. From then on it will be a joy to lick your weight and wear those smaller size dresses.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS



The Maginot Line, built on the eastern border of France after World War I, was once thought to be the strongest military defense system in Europe. Running from Switzerland to Belgium, the complex consisted of bunkers and superfortresses equipped with quarters for troops and storage for supplies and ammunition, says The World Almanac. The forts, some of which were connected by railway tunnels, had heavy artillery machine guns and anti-aircraft guns, all protected by tank traps and barbed wire.

Children To Travel

PRAGUE (AP) — The Czechoslovak Youth Travel Bureau intends to send abroad 130,000 Czechoslovak children next year, the news agency C.T.K. reported recently, saying the exchanges are planned with the Soviet Union, East Germany, Great Britain and Austria.

Togetherness Best Describes Families

LOUISVILLE (AP) — Togetherness is the word that best describes the families of Barney Cecil and Al Wohlleb.

The Cecils then bought a lot in a new subdivision and the Wohllebs moved next door.

Recently, Cecil was hospitalized with a mild heart attack. A short time later Wohlleb showed up for minor surgery.

Europe Market Gets More Of U.S. Outlays

Foreign outlays by American firms, consisting of foreign plant and equipment expenditures, are expected to reach $9.2 billion by the end of 1966. It represents a rise of 21 per cent over the previous year.

The six Common Market countries, Belgium, France, Italy, Luxembourg, the Netherlands and West Germany, will receive an investment of about $1.4 billion, a 40 per cent increase over 1965 outlays.

It Took 10 Years To Settle Pipe Issue

CAIRO (AP) — Egyptian red tape deprived 30,000 villagers in Upper Egypt of potable water for the past 10 years, the newspaper Alakhbar reported.

Two councils running the affairs of Girga city conflicted over whose duty it was to install a short pipe. It took them 10 years to determine who was to do what.

Handshaking at White House receptions was introduced by Thomas Jefferson.
